

INSTALLMENTS

Information from UT Arlington Libraries

Vol. 3, Issue 2, Feb. 2015

Focus on Faculty explores adventurism and empire

Dr. David Narrett, professor of history, will examine the clash of empires and nationalities from the diverse perspectives of Native Americans and of the competing Spanish, French, British, and Anglo-American forces at the first Focus on Faculty event of 2015.

Feb. 11 at noon on the sixth floor of Central Library ■ Reception sponsored by Phi Kappa Phi

Allan Saxe Little Free Libraries

Little Free Libraries offer free books to anyone who stops by. Once a visitor has read the book, they can return it to the Little Free Library, pass it to a friend, or replace it with another book. There is no checkout procedure, no fees, and no due dates. Readers are encouraged to leave notes for future readers and add their own selections to the collection.

For more information, contact Peggy Semington at peggys@uta.edu, Evelyn Barker at ebarker@uta.edu, or like The University of Texas at Arlington-Allan Saxe Little Free Libraries on Facebook.

Academic Plaza opens

The Academic Plaza located on the second floor of Central Library provides students with convenient access to a variety of campus support services.

- University Tutorial & Supplemental Instruction offers one-on-one fee-based tutoring, as well as group-based collaborative learning.
- The Academic Resource Center offers free drop-in tutoring in room 215 Sundays-Thursdays from 2-4 p.m. and 7-10 p.m.
- Representatives from the University Advising Center will be available in room 215 on Tuesdays from 5-7 p.m.
- The Writing Center, while open on the 4th floor until 8pm, will now have a consultant on the 2nd floor Mondays and Thursdays from 8-10 p.m.
- Dr. Chris Conway holds office hours outside of 215 on Thursdays from 11 a.m. to noon and Fridays from noon to 1 p.m.
- Dr. Desiree Henderson holds office hours outside of 215 on Wednesdays from 1-2:30 p.m.
- The Graduate Study, 214, is available for graduate students whenever the library is open.

Tail-Waggin' Wednesdays return

The dogs are back! Paws with Partners will bring their registered therapy dogs to Central Library for some doggy de-stressing. Visit them on the second floor of Central Library from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on the first Wednesday of February, March, and April. First visit is Feb. 4.

UT ARLINGTON
FABLAB

Come demo the new
Oculus Rift!