EDITOR'S FOREWORD

As you look through this 1955 issue of the REVEILLE, I hope that you will be reminded of all the wonderful times we have had this year. We have done our best to preserve on these pages memories of the friends we have made among the students and teachers, the varied experiences we have had, and the knowledge we have gained.

As ASC continues to grow with perhaps new and bigger perspectives in the near future, we, of the 1955 REVEILLE Staff, hope that the school year this book represents will go down as an outstanding one in the history of the college.

Without the cooperation of countless individuals, the presentation of the book would not have been possible. The gratitude of the staff cannot be expressed in mere words. To students and teachers alike, we say, thank you.

D e d i c a t i o n . . .

Because of the beautiful improvements he has been responsible for bringing to the campus of Arlington State College, because he has striven tirelessly and unselfishly to increase the reputation of the college in esteem of the people of Texas, and because throughout his administration he has worked ceaselessly for the best interests of the students in the class room and the teachers who instruct them, this edition of the Reveille is appreciatively dedicated to President E. H. Hereford.

PRESIDENT E. H. HEREFORD

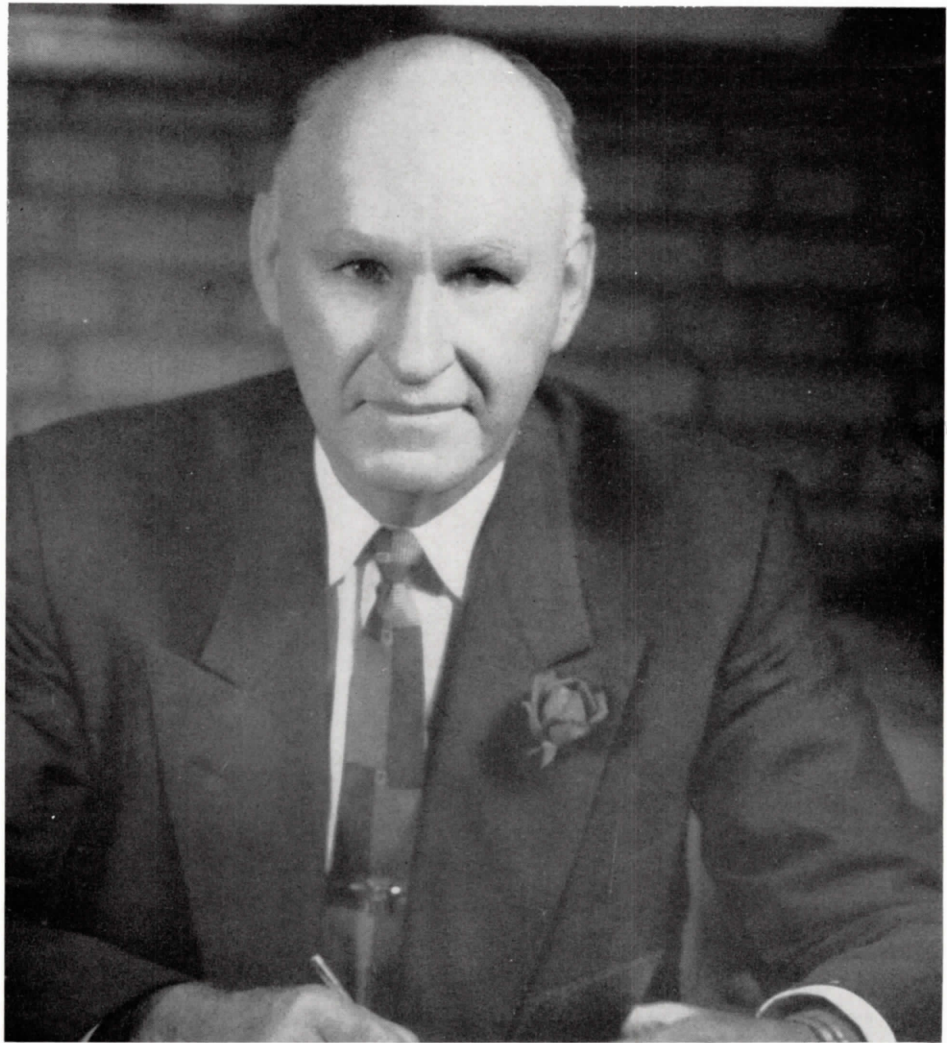

Chancellor...

MARION T. HARRINGTON

"Arlington State College, located in the most heavily industrialized section of Texas, is rapidly becoming one of the most important parts of the Texas A. and M. College System. The responsibility of the college for training young men and women to meet the demands of Texas industry is a challenge that is being met through a sound program. Rapid increase in enrollment and public acceptance of graduates of the college reflect the confidence of the people of this area in the work of your college.

I extend my greetings and best wishes to the members of the faculty and the student body."

President...

E. H. HEREFORD

Perhaps no one activity or publication depicts life at Arlington State College more adequately than the Reveille. Those in charge of the publication this year have caught and reflected the spirit of the campus in a most admirable manner. All phases of campus life stand out as important and contribute to the success of the whole. My sincere congratulations to each one who has had a part in this important publication.

Rebel

Coach Claude "Cheena" Gilstrap, the Arlington State head football coach for the last two seasons, was picked for the second time by Texas sport writers as the "Outstanding Junior College Coach of the Year". His team posted an 8-2 won-lost standing, totaling 16 victories against three losses in two years as the Rebel grid mentor.

Headed by Coach Claude Gilstrap, the ASC coaching staff tutored a group of recruits and freshman into a powerhouse eleven which rose to national rating in junior college grid circles.

Coach Burley Bearden, Rebel line mentor, became a full-time coach for the first time while at ASC. He again organized a forward wall that ranked high with any junior college team in the country. Coach Tommy Tinker turned in another creditable job as scout and instructor for backs and ends in his 14th year on the Rebel coaching staff.

Football in 1954

Memories of college days will long be remembered by the experiences this group of football boys endured in the season of 1954. Reminiscence of good football teams, whether unbeaten or not, never fade away. Just as memories of this squad will be remembered by those who think back over the years of the Rebel team that won national attention ,and ALMOST, went to a post-season bowl game.—These are the unforgotten.

Recruits Faced

Arlington State's Rebel football team opened the 1954 season with its toughest schedule in its history. Six of the seven returning lettermen were in the line, but there were many holes to gap and positions to strengthen in the Reb forward wall.

All-Conference halfback, Johnny Symank, was the lone backfield veteran, causing three starting vacancies in the secondary.

Coaches Claude Gilstrap, Burley Bearden and Tommy Tinker spent the spring and summer on the hunt for new faces so as to defend the Pioneer Conference crown and last season's 8-1 record.

The Wharton Pioneers was the first test for the Rebels on the opponents homefield. The ASC fans quickly learned the name of the new Reb quarterback, Raymond Glasgow, as the Arlington boy passed for two touchdowns in leading the Rebels to a 19-7 victory over Wharton.

Kilgore's mighty Rangers was the Reb's next non-conference opponent. In the 1953 season, Arlington's lone loss was at the hands of this East Texas crew and whispers of revenge were in the air at ASC's Memorial Stadium that Friday evening.

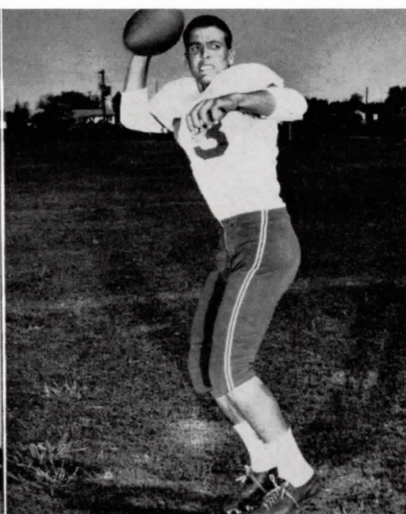

Kilgore, the team that had averaged 50 points in two previous games, quickly jumped to a lead, having a 16-0 edge at the half.

Freshman fullback, Billy Pavliska, turned the tide in the third quarter with a 86-yard touchdown run. After the kick-off, Ken Watson covered a Ranger fumble and four plays later Glasgow went over from the one. End Bill Hunnicutt covered another fumble in the last period that set up Pavliska's clinching tally that gave ASC a 20-16 win, and Kilgore's only loss of the entire season.

The Rebels had disposed of two strong non-conference teams but another one was up next. Paris proved to be tough opposition but a three yard thrust by Pavliska in the closing minutes of the game slew the Dragons, 7-0.

Navarro was an easier foe for the Rebs, but the blue and white machine did not begin to roll until the second stanza. Freshman quarterback, Jimmy Hardin, started the first pay dirt drive by guiding the Rebels down to the one, setting up Barfield's final thrust. Glasgow later tallied for another, followed by Pavliska's two touchdowns, that gave the Rebels a 28-7 victory.

ASC journeyed to the gulf coast for an engagement with the undefeated Del Mar Vikings at Corpus Christi. The Rebels had to come from behind twice but kept their winning slate clean by tripping the host team, 25-20. Johnny Symank clinched the win on a 61-yard run in the third period. Lineman Wayne Coble, Cecil Jacobson, Don Barnett and Jimmy Gilbreath held the Vikings in check by outstanding defensive work. Arlington State ran up its biggest score of the season in its first loop game with Schreiner. Two touchdowns by Symank and Pavliska, totaled to tallies by Rogers Bruce and Hardin, gave the Rebs a 39-7 victory. Conversions were made by Glasgow and Andy Seward.

A homecoming crowd of 4,000 saw the Rebels continue their winning streak by trouncing the strong San Angelo eleven, 33-7. The Rebels outstanding halfback, Alton Grimes, scored three touchdowns and Glasgow passed for two more to Watson and Pavliska.

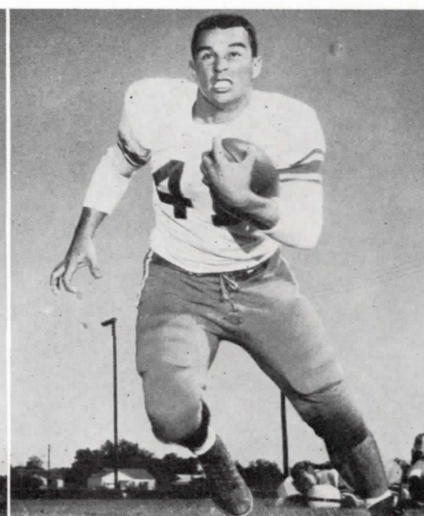

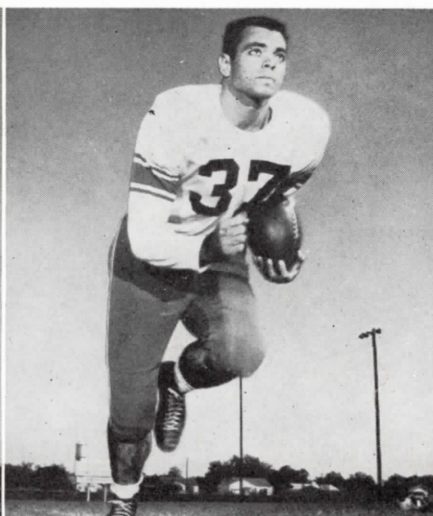

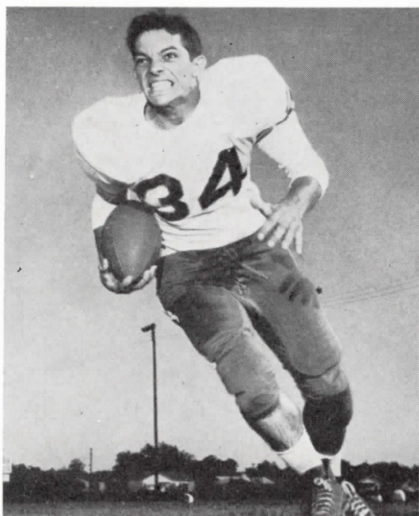

Ranger's Rangers rallied for three touchdowns in the final period to score a 21-14 upset victory over the Rebels. ASC lead at half-time, 14-2, on touchdowns by Pavliska and Grimes. In the final quarter Ranger scored from its own 42 in three plays and from the 43 in seven tries, tying the Rebs 14-14.

some two minutes left in the game Charles Lenamond, Ranger back, intercepted an ASC pass on his own 35 and raced down to the four before being brought down. L. O. Clayborn drove over the goal marker for the upset tally, giving Ranger a 21-14 win.

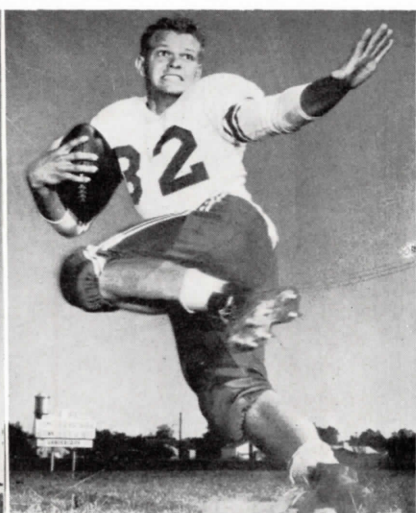

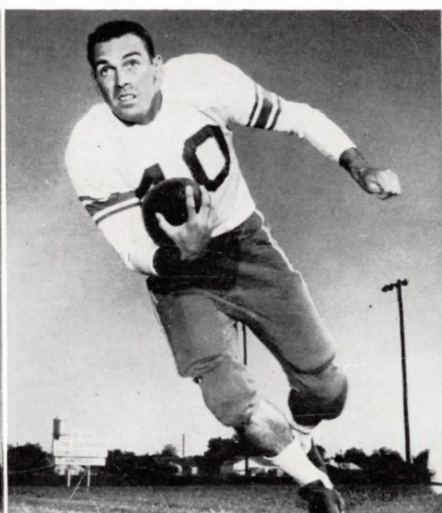

Tallying once in each quarter, the Arlington State eleven rebounded from the Ranger defeat by scoring a 22-7 victory over the Cameron Aggies from Lawton, Oklahoma on the Rebel home turf.

period when the Reb big forward wall smothered a stray Aggie in the end zone. In the second period, Center Bo Farris covered a Cameron bobble on the visitor's 26, and later Rogers Bruce carried the pigskin the remaining distance. Carroll Brister, a Rebel veteran tackle, booted the extra point.

From then on, Arlington State decisively took over the game as Symanck scored on a pass from Glasgow, and Barfield tallied from the one after three completed passes by Hardin.

The Rebels were badly battered and beaten after playing the rough and tumble Aggies.

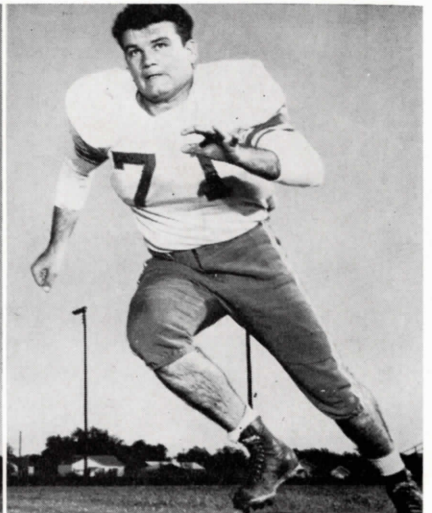

Tarleton State, the rival school for 29 years, had been idle that week and were ready for the once beaten Rebels, both spiritually and physically.

against the Rebels and then threw up a stout pass defense in winning, 27-20, taking the Pioneer Conference Crown away from the Rebs.

Tarleton's Gene Ward was the big thorn in the side of the Rebels scoring three touchdowns, intercepting a pass and prevented another ASC touchdown by making a last-man tackle.

Arlington State tallied its first touchdown on a pass from Jim Hardin to Halfback Alton Grimes, covering 72 yards. Just before the half, Hardin again lead the Rebels to pay dirt by passing successfully to the one-yard marker, from where he plunged over. In the last minute of the contest, Hardin passed to End Bill Hunnicutt from the seven to end the scoring.

The loss destroyed any hopes of a post-season bowl bid for the Rebs, of which, they were definite contenders for an appointment to the Little Rose Bowl in Pasadena, California.

Although two conference defeats left Arlington State in a third place tie in the loop, the Rebels lead the other teams in All-Conference selections, Coach Gilstrap was voted the outstanding junior college mentor, and every one knew ASC had one of its greatest teams in its history.

Coach Tommy Tinker's 1954-55 Rebel cagers in the last two seasons have taken to the side lines from the path of the Pioneer Conference crown but each year have established themselves trouble-makers to the contenders.

Due to lack of height under the backboards, the ASC five finished third in the loop by beating the rival Plowboys from Tarleton State in the last game of the season. Wendell Stotts, Arlington State's flashy guard, made the first team All-Conference selection for individual honors.
