WE REMEMBER....

The school year of 1961-62 began with world situations in a precarious, depressing position. The draft call for young men reached a point higher than it had been since the end of the Second World War. Russia's Premier Khrushchev was making more and more demands on the Western world. The demands quite conceivably could lead to a third big war. The untimely death of Dag Hammarskjold threw the United Nations into a turmoil which was not easily resolved. In France, an attempt to assassinate Premier Charles DeGaulle was unsuccessful. Hurricane Carla caused a great deal of damage to the southern coast of the United States, but only a hull of its damaging force blew this far north. Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle came close, but could not quite break the magic number of 60 home runs in one 154-game season. Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn was admitted to Baylor Hospital, in Dallas, seriously ill with cancer. President Kennedy flew in from Washington to see him before Rayburn died. And Russia, true to her promise, exploded the world's largest nuclear device over the Artic proving ground.

On a cheerier note, good things happened too. The Disneyland of the Southwest, Six Flags Over Texas, opened its portals and many students found lucrative jobs with that industry. The overall job situation was far better than it was at this time last year. On the local business scene, the demand for ASC graduates was high. Area firms vied for the seniors at fine starting salaries. As more people were hired, the companies expanded, creating the need for even more graduates, thus perpetuating the need for well educated people in all fields.

Here at the College, things could hardly have been rosier. The fall College enrollment was up fifteen percent over last year's. Total enrollment was 8,313. ASC was fifth largest of the state supported colleges. The new E. H. Hereford Student Center was officially opened September 1. The hemlines in dresses were higher than at any time since 1945. The Ivy League look was more popular than ever. Some hit songs on campus and off were "Candyman," "Big John," "Moon River," and "Who Put the Bomp."

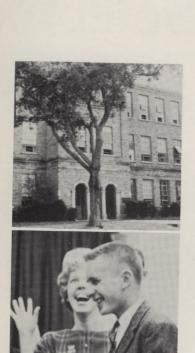

The year passed all too swiftly: football games, pledge week, homecoming, the military ball, Fine Arts Diminsion week, and the Old South Ball all are now fond memories.

We are all one year older and wiser. The events of the year are nestled snugly in the subconscious of our memories, and it takes nothing more than a small reminder to cause them to come once more to the surface. Within these pages, we hope that we have furnished that small reminder. We hope that you will find the events and people that made you happiest during the year. For such is our desire.

Geology Prof.

Boon Selected

as Dedicatee

of '62 Reveille

J. D. Boon

Professor John D. Boon, head of the geology department, has taught here for nineteen years. Mr. Boon is listed in Who's Who and American Men of Science, and he is a member of the Geological Society of America, as well as other local and national geological organizations.

Mr. Boon did his first teaching as a student laboratory instructor at S.M.U., where he received his B.S. degree in geology. He did graduate work through a teaching fellowship at Harvard and through an instructorship at the University of Texas.

In 1942 Professor Boon came to teach at Arlington State. He became acting head of the physics department and organized a teaching staff and classes to meet the wartime training of Navy and Marine units.

Five years later Professor Boon was appointed head of the geology department. Mr. Boon prefers teaching freshman courses to advanced ones, because he realizes the importance of the orientation of new students at the beginning of their college careers.

The professor of geology, like most other ASC teachers, has been active in college affairs. Mr. Boon has been on the college Athletic Council for seventeen years. He has helped in degree planning for his department and has served on the committee planning the new science building for physics, chemistry, and geology.

CITY HALL

Three years of planning and construction went into the new city hall of Arlington. The $300,000 structure houses all the offices of the city government except the fire and police departments. A population increase of 510 per cent in the space of 11 years prompted the construction of the new city hall. The new building with its modern, functional appearance symbolizes the rapid progress of the city.

WE SALUTE INDUSTRY

"A Salute to Industry" was chosen as the theme for the 1962 Reveille. The editors feel that the theme is appropriate because industry plays a major role in the development and progress of the Fort Worth-Dallas area. Many local manufacturers and businessmen hire ASC students and graduates when jobs are available.

In the following introductory pages, only a small number of industries are represented. It would be impossible to picture or even name those businesses that have made major contributions to this metropolitan area and to the college.

The Reveille takes off its hat to industry!

MAYOR J. VANDERGRIFF

Tom J. Vandergriff has been mayor of Arlington since May, 1951. His cooperation with the college has enabled it to grow from 1,532 students in 1951 to an enrollment of 8,318 in 1961.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

The First National Bank Building in Fort Worth was formally dedicated April, 1961, after being under construction some 730 days. Built at a cost exceeding $10 million, the eighteen-story building occupies two city blocks overlooking Burk Burnett Park. Architects of the bank call it "a glass box suspended inside a steel cage." The windows are protected by an overhang of four feet, six inches on each floor.

SIX FLAGS OVER TEXAS

REBELS WORK AT SIX FLAGS

Several ASC students have found interesting jobs at Six Flags Over Texas. They earn spending (or tuition) money and have fun at the same time. Six Flags is located near the Great Southwest Industrial area northeast of Arlington.

Judy Taylor interviews about 20 Six Flags visitors daily. She gets their opinions on the amuse-

Houshang Amini, from Tehran, Iran, makes adventure come alive as he pilots a Mississippi River boat down the Indian infested river.

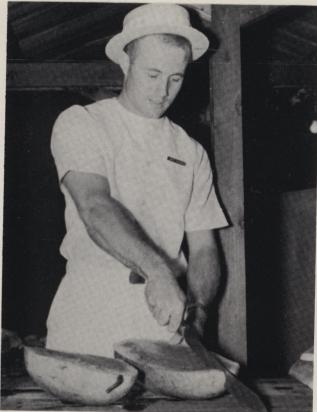

A former ASC student who has made good, this fellow is one of the most popular attractions at the park.

Beth Mosig puts her talents to profitable use as an artist at the South's newest and most unusual amusement park.

Obrey Smith gives a sample of tasty cashews to a customer. Obrey is majoring in electrical engineering.

Robbing the ol' watermelon patch was never like this. That's Bruce Crabtree wielding the blade through one of nature's most nearly perfect foods. . .nearly perfect for summertime eating, anyway.

Tom Menz loads a youngster onto the Old Overland Stage just in time to keep the "pesky redskins" from attacking and robbing the coach.

"If I told you once, I told you a thousand times, Max, it's C natural, then B sharp." Max Morley receives the expert opinion of Randall Ashlock, senior music major.

Such beauty could be found in only one place in the old west, the Crazy Horse Saloon. Receiving that tall sarsaparilla is Jack Boulton. Passing it is Sue Busse. Jo Williams and Ila Young are the other half of the quartet.

The Confederate army has risen again at Six Flags. Adding another bean to the pot is Norman Vaughn. Jim Stracener handles the stirring rod.

BIG TEX AT STATE FAIR

"Big Tex," the official welcomer to the State Fair of Texas, could not be overlooked in our salute to the metropolitan area of Dallas-Fort Worth. His vital statistics are in the good of Texas tradition. Tall as a four story building, he wears size 276 blue jeans, size 90 shirt, size 70 boots and a 75 gallon hat. No little man, he.

SOUTHLAND LIFE IN DALLAS

The Southland Life Insurance Co. is the tallest office building west of the Mississippi River. The 42-story structure with 15,800 light fixtures, towers over the expanding city of Dallas. Built at a cost of $35,000,000, the building houses 5,000 offices and is located in the heart of downtown Dallas.

LING-TEMCO-VOUGHT CORPORATION

Although only one section is shown, the final assembly line of the Ling-Temco-Vought Corporation covers a huge area. The tail sections are to be added to the F8U-2NE's like the one shown in flight below. Ling-Temco-Vought is an active member of the ASC co-op program with the engineering department; thus, many students are helped as they help the community.

THE NEW CRUSADER

Streaking through the air at speeds over 1000 miles per hour, the newest member of the Crusader family is the F8U-2NE. The new version of the fighter family is currently undergoing flight tests since its initial flight last June. The plane has new radar apparatus designed to seek out and cut down enemy planes at greater ranges when coupled with the Sidewinder missiles.

CHANCELLOR
TEXAS A & M SYSTEM

The vigorous growth of Arlington State College in recent years has been a source of genuine pride for all of us in the Texas A. and M. College System. Above all, we are proud of the way Arlington State has taken its spectacular growth in stride, accommodating more and more students each year, without sacrificing the quality of its offerings.

In the next few years, as the building program, to some degree, catches up with the enrollment, Arlington State will come into its own as one of the major senior colleges of Texas. I have full confidence that it will live up, in full, to its present promise and will be a most valued asset of one of the great urban regions of our state.

It is a pleasure to offer to the students of Arlington State College, and to its staff, our hearty congratulations on progress to date and our sincere best wishes for the future.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS TEXAS A & M COLLEGE SYSTEM

In 1876, the terms of a federal land grant opened the doors to the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, and for the first time, six students were enrolled. Needless to say, the A&M system has grown considerably in the last 86 years. Supervising this growth is the Board of Directors, composed of nine members. The Board is appointed by the governor, with the consent of the Senate, for six year terms.

Dr. Woolf became acting president of Arlington State in 1958. He was inaugurated president in 1960.

About the only time Dr. Woolf relaxes is when he poses for a picture.

DR. WOOLF GUIDES ASC

Dr. Jack R. Woolf became acting president of Arlington State College in 1958. In 1960, he was inaugurated as president. He came to ASC in 1957, as Dean of the College, from Texas A&M where he had taught in the mechanical engineering department. Under his guidance, ASC has become the fifth largest state-supported college in Texas. His untiring devotion to the College has provided incentive for faculty members and students.

SAMUEL T. KEIM

Dr. Samuel T. Keim came to ASC from the University of Kansas in 1960 to become dean of the School of Arts and Sciences. As the title implies, Dean Keim is in charge of planning curriculum, choosing the faculty and administering the programs of the Arts and Sciences department. It is also, in part Dean Keim's responsibility that ASC becomes a fully accredited institution.

The college offers a B.S. degree in mathematics, physics, chemistry, geology, and biology. The B.A. degrees offered are in English, economics, foreign languages, history and psychology. Students may earn the B.B.A. degree in business administration.

WENDELL H. NEDDERMAN

Dean Wendell H. Nedderman came to ASC from Texas A&M as dean of the School of Engineering. Dean Nedderman's principal duties entail planning and directing the activities and curriculums for the various departments in the School of Engineering. Dean Nedderman took his doctorate in structural engineering at Iowa State University.

The School of Engineering has a fouryear program leading to the B.S. degree in aeronautical, civil, electrical, industrial and mechanical engineering, as well as the Associate Science diploma in aeronautical, civil, electrical, and mechanical technology. A two-year program is offered in architecture, petroleum engineering, and chemical engineering.

ALLEN J. HERNDON

Dr. Allen J. Herndon is presently serving as assistant to the dean of the School of Arts and Sciences. Dr. Herndon came to ASC in 1956 as head of the education and psychology department. In addition to serving in the capacity of assistant dean, Dr. Herndon teaches in the psychology department, which for the first time this year is able to grant a B.A. degree.

CHARLES H. CONNALLY

Charles H. Connally, serving as assistant to the dean of engineering, considers himself primarily a counselor. He interviews, counsels, and evaluates scores on the aptitude tests given by the department. Another of his functions is that of supervising the co-op program between the department and the local manufacturers.

G. ELTON SMITH

Professor G. Elton Smith is assistant to the dean of engineering. Professor Smith supervises space utilization in the school of engineering, He also teaches in the engineering department. The professor came to ASC in 1946 after teaching at Oklahoma State University for six years. In 1960, he was named to the post of assistant dean.

LERA D. HANCOCK

Lera D. Hancock became dean of women three years ago after being head of the home economics department. The dean supervises women's activities on campus. Dean Hancock is hopefully looking forward to the time when ASC will have adequate housing for women students and hopes that her office will become better equipped to serve the commuting women students.

HORACE F. GILLESPIE

Dean Horace F. Gillespie was named to the post of Dean of Men in 1957. The dean is happiest when helping a student prepare a schedule for his life's work. Dean Gillespie is a member of the Association of Higher Education, the American Psychological Association, and the Association of Student Personnel Administrators.

ROSEMARY MATHIS

Rosemary Mathis came to ASC as director of student services after teaching high school in Wisconsin and Colorado. A graduate of Oklahoma University, Miss Mathis hopes that in her capacity as director of student services she will be able to make an outstanding program of campus activities, both from the standpoint of those who work on the programs and from that of students who will be served by the program.

B.C. BARNES

B.C. Barnes, director of business and finance, handles the purse strings for the college. Director Barnes does the budgeting and monetary planning. He came to ASC in September, 1929, and is completing his 33rd year on the administrative staff. Mr. Barnes was head of the old commercial arts department, later to be named business administration, and was registrar from 1947 until 1960.

CHARLES NELSON

Charles Nelson became registrar in 1960. He is responsible for admissions and registrations at ASC; and the unenvied task of keeping track of grades, transcripts, and grade reports falls directly on him. Until his appointment as registrar, he had served as assistant registrar since his release from the Air Force in 1957.

JOE S. BAILEY

Business Manager Joe S. Bailey handles all purchasing, accounting and disbursement records. He is responsible for the money collected during registration, and for student fees and services. Mr. Bailey came to work in the ASC business office in 1926, and has been business manager since 1938.

J.D. BRYANT

Professor J.D. Bryant, assistant to the President, is responsible for institutional planning and research. One of his tasks in this direction is to see that new and better registration methods will be employed. Prof. Bryant was head of the business administration department from 1947-1961. He assumed his present post this fall.

COTHBURN M. O'NEAL

Dr. Cothburn M. O'Neal became assistant to the President in February, 1961. Dr. O'Neal acts as a liaison between ASC and scholarship donors and is coordinator of special events. Before assuming his present office, Dr. O'Neal was head of the fine arts department. He came to ASC in 1938 upon his graduation from Trinity University.

BEN B. COOK

Ben B. Cook became director of the newly created Office of Informations and Publications in 1961. It is his responsibility to insure that the various news media are informed of the programs and events offered and sponsored by the college. He also handles sports publicity and publishes general college publications. A graduate of SMU and former reporter for the Amarillo Globe Times, Mr. Cook began teaching at ASC in the English and journalism department in 1957.

NOEL H. McCOY

Noel H. McCoy, assistant registrar and admissions officer, came to the college in 1960. Mr. McCoy, a 1956 graduate of SMU, had previously been deputy school officer for the American school children in Okinawa. Mr. McCoy's duties include advertising and counseling both new and transfer students regarding registration matters, handling applications for admission, and making transcript evaluations.

PAT FOWLER

Pat Fowler is director of the new E.H. Hereford Student Center. He became director in September, 1959, and has watched it grow into the large and beautiful structure that it is now. Mr. Fowler is a member of the National Association of College Unions, and he proposes to make the student center the best possible student activities area in the country. Mr. Fowler is supervisor of the snack bar, cafeteria, book exchange, and is responsible for the care and maintenance of the student center.

DEXTER L. BETTS

Dexter L. Betts took over the new position of director of placement in 1960. He is a 1948 graduate of Texas A. & M. and after receiving his degree came to ASC as director of the audio-visual department. He is an active member of the College Placement Council, the Southwest Placement Association, the Dallas Personnel Association, and the Fort Worth Personnel Management Association in connection with his capacity.

WILLIAM W. SIMMONS

William W. Simmons, assistant registrar, is one of the newer members of the administration, coming to the campus in September, 1961. A graduate of Oklahoma University with a major in business administration, he is responsible for the management of the registrar's office staff. Catalog distribution, filling, the registration packets at registration time, and making photostats come within his realm.

WHAT'S NEW AT ASC?

ARCHITECTS SKETCH SCIENCE HALL

Architect's sketch of the proposed new science building shows the perspective from the corner of Third and Cooper streets. Plans call for the three story structure to contain classroom and laboratory facilities as well as administrative and departmental offices. The unit will add about 90,000 square feet to the science department.

ASC CONSTRUCTS GYMNASIUM

This is an artist's conception of the new gymnasium, which is presently under construction south of Memorial Stadium. The gymnasium, which will cost about $500,000, is scheduled for completion by June, 1962. It will contain a swimming pool, rifle range, basketball court, and room for other courts to be used by the physical education departments. The old gymnasium will be used for home basketball games, since the new one will have no seats.

NEW BOWLING ALLEY

The new eight-tane bowling alley in the Student Center is a dream come true.

STUDENT CENTER COFFEE SHOP

The coffee shop has a new look this year with a significant enlargement of floor space.

Administration

As ASC has grown, the need for expansion has made itself felt in all departments of the college. Until this year, the offices of the Dean of Men and Dean of Women, and the Placement Office were in the Administration building. This year the officers were moved to the Student Center and the entire lower floor of the Administration building is now the domain of the registrar's and the business offices. The upper two stories provide classrooms and faculty offices, primarily for the English department.

Library

Plans for a new library are now in the offing and it should be ready for use by the spring of 1964. The old library has served the college since 1953. Before that time, the building served as a cafeteria and was once a part of the student center. Occasionally in the near quiet of the library stacks, the ping-ping of a rifle may be heard from the rifle range in the basement. But with the completion of the new structure, all such noncontemplative noises will be a memory to be recalled at the annual homecomings.

Preston Hall

Preston Hall accommodates the social science and physics departments. Class rooms, lecture halls, and laboratories are filled almost to capacity each day by the increasing number of students who have made ASC the fifth largest state-supported college in the state of Texas.

Science Hall

The Science building has served well the students who have anxiously sought after the secrets of the protozoa, amoeba and related families. Electron and proton seekers are not to be neglected, for both biology and chemistry classes use Science Hall. A new science building is to be built in the near future, but Science Hall will always have a place in our hearts for the many hours we spent peering into microscopes and mixing formulae.

Engineering

The engineering building is the largest and newest building on the campus. Completed in 1960, it contains classrooms, laboratories, and administrative offices. The engineering, foreign language, mathematics, and business administration departments are housed in the building. Laboratories, containing the newest and most modern equipment available, provide students with excellent workshops and study areas.

Engineering Technology

The two-story Engineering Technology building carries the impression of grace and simplicity. The structure is a functional building, housing the terminal course of the engineering department. In it are the classrooms and laboratories and the college auditorium used by all other departments.

LIPSCOMB HALL

Situated at the east edge of the campus, Lipscomb Hall is probably the most visited building on campus—next to the class rooms. Need anyone be told that it is the girl's dorm? Lipscomb Hall houses 144 girls.

PACHL HALL

Pachl Hall is the boy's dorm, located at the far west edge of the campus. Built in 1950 it has provided housing for countless boys during the twelve-year period. The Pachl Dorm club has completed plans for remodeling the lobby of the dorm to make it even more relaxing and presentable.

DAVIS DORM

Davis dorm could be more aptly called a barracks. The ASC ROTC cadets inhabit the imposing structure located in the heart of the campus.

REBEL VILLAGE

Rebel Village lies nestled away from the confines of the crowded campus. The "village" is the home for ASC athletes, primarily the football team. The building contains three dormitories, a recreation building and a cafeteria.

Students reach the end of the registration line at last and pay their fees.

Now, son, you know you can't register in those bermudas.

Freshmen mill around the Student Center after a busy registration session, laden with course cards, parking stickers, and yearbook reminders.

Dad's helping his daughter move into Lipscomb Hall.

ENROLLMENT PLACES ARLINGTON FIFTH

Over 8,000 students registered at Arlington State for the fall semester of 1961. The enrollment made ASC the fifth largest among the state-supported colleges. Registration itself is no simple matter. A student must fill out endless forms, locate classes, and try to wade through crowds of other registrants. Paying tuition is a pleasure because that is the last step in the registration process.

Faculty and administration members attend the annual faculty tea.

Girls' society clubs sponsor an apple mixer for prospective members. The lucky girls later receive an invitation to the individual club teas.

Two bridge partners wait for the other two to settle a difference of opinion. Bridge is a favorite pastime in the campus off-hours.

Administration members receive students at an all-college mixer.

Jubilant Cheerleaders congratulate Rebel team members after the game with Louisiana Tech.

"Let's yell, y'all!"

This couple is having fun!

REBELS RELAX

During the first days of school, most ASC students just have fun. The Sub is a center of activity where we look for old friends and meet new ones. Socializing goes on until class rolls are complete and quizzes are announced. Then a drastic change of behavior is noted, as students go to the library for serious concentration.

Study must finally take precedence over just having fun.

Dr. Anne Whaling assists Jacquiline Moore and Richard Fabre in English laboratory.

Edwin Williams chooses his senior ring.

INSIDE SCENES SHOW NEW CHANGES AT ASC

Four ASC students admire a print by a young American artist in the Student Center gallery.

Campus Postmaster Troy Wright plans to retire after 16 years here.

Dean Hancock and her stenographer, Mrs. J. G. Holmes, carry on their work in spite of the busy carpenters. The men were building storage cabinets for the dean's office.

KARUSO PTEROS

Penny Crisp, Nancy Thomason, Connie Schilder, Mrs. Ella T. Peyton, and Mrs. Sue Baldwin.

KOSHARI

Lynn Sutton, Sandra Foster, Jill Reed, and pianist Martha Stanton.

SOCIAL CLUBS FETE RUSHEES

Campus social clubs chose varied themes for their teas honoring rushees. Six groups entertained their guests at homes in the Arlington area, while one club chose a private club.

Avolontes selected an ancient Rome motif. Members were dressed in draped chiffon robes characteristic of the Roman period. They carried trays of fruit and wine urns and fanned their guests. Avolontes entertained at the home of Mrs. W. T. Vandergriff.

Sans Soucis used an authentic setting for their Old South tea, the home of Mrs Donald Hamilton. Guests were carried to the colonial-style home in a black carriage. Dressed as Southern belles, the Soucis served punch and sandwiches in the house. Others preferred to ride in the carriage around the grounds.

Les Choisies chose another period from American history, the Flaming Youth of the '20's. The home of Mrs. B. J. Mycoskie was transformed into a speak-easy, while members served guests "bathtub gin." Hot jazz records accompanied conversation. Les Choisies wore fringed and beaded dresses.

From the color and excitement of the Flaming Youth rushees moved into the subdued, mystical atmosphere of the Orient. Kosharies enacted a little play. The modern home of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Bontley was decorated with Chinese lanterns and Japanese art. Kosharis served tea and fortune cookies.

AVOLONTE

Mike McKissick, gladiator; Beverly Barton, princess; and Nancy Horn, slave girl.

SANS SOUCI

Frances Montfort, Johnnie Grimmitt, Elizabeth Blair, Lynda Hunter, and Cathy Clayton.

EN AMI

Audrey Swisher, Virginia Fowler, Linda Dubberly, and Kathie Burleson.

Zongolas altered the home of the Byron Matthews into Mount Olympus to match their Greek mythology theme. Members, dressed in chiffon tunics, represented various figures in mythology. Guests were served grape nectar from a gold punch bowl.

Karuso Pteros also chose an exotic theme for their tea. Members wore costumes like those of the Arabian harem dancers. They entertained guests around the swimming pool at the home of Mrs. Robert Tallon.

En Ami received guests at the Club Southwest, which they decorated as a French sidewalk cafe. Girls were dressed as French maids, in black and white frilly uniforms.

ZONGOLA

Cora Anne Scottino, Joy Burress, Daisianne Davis, and Phyllis Morand.

LES CHOISIES

Mak Boswell, Jean Hardin, Mona Kay Hoipkemeier, and Vickie Handly.

As far as shoe shines go, it's not so hot, but the bootblacks are a little nicer looking than the ones down at the train station.

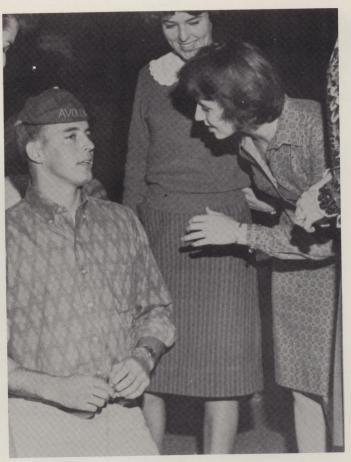

A quartet of pledges manage to get away from some of the bustling confusion of Pledge Week by hiding out in the middle of the Student Center.

These pledges are so proud and happy to be Les Choisies pledges that they even tried a mild form of suicide; that of self-strangulation.

PLEDGES KEEP HAPPY FACES

The ASC campus once again found itself in the middle of Pledge Week as the girl's social clubs began the initiation of new members. Ratted hair, plastic bags worn over the clothing, kleenex boxes worn over the shoes, and kitchen aprons were only a few of the unusual items of dress worn by the pledges. Some pledges also kept the tables cleared in the Student Center, providing a service to the College and the students who daily while away the hours in the new building.

Well, really I'm sorry, fella, but according to the club constitution, the first prerequisite is that of belonging to the opposite sex.

BUSY OCTOBER HERALDS FALL

The Professional Business Club held its annual picnic on the shores of Lake Arlington. That old standby, the hot dog, once again proved its worth to the hungry throng.

Jo (lecturer, music department) and Harvey Boatright presented the first in a series of concerts presented by the ASC music department.

Drinking cokes through a nipple is one way to make them last longer, the PBC picnickers discovered.

Mona Kay Hoipkemeier and Jerry Cooper admire the architectural display of a city of tomorrow.

According to the blue-print, the 5Y4 should be right next to the blue wire, not to the green one.

"CURIOUS SAVAGE" DRAWS FULL HOUSE THREE NIGHTS

"The bonds were right there on the table before the lights were turned off, and now they're gone." The plan centered around Ethel and the bonds. Members of the Savage family and patients at the rest home are Titus, Samuel, Fairy May, Lilly Belle, Florence, Hannibal, and Ethel.

The ASC Little Theater Group presented their first play in November. Their vehicle was "The Curious Savage," by John Patrick. Under the direction of Richard Slaughter, associate professor, English department, the play was presented before full houses on the nights which it ran.

Briefly, the story concerns the Savage family which is determined to have its step-mother put into an asylum. The play takes place in "The Cloisters," which is that asylum. The family discovers that Mrs. Savage has sold the family property and converted the money into bonds. She sends the members out on a wild chase, each to a different place to find them, and each becomes involved with the police, in a scandal. The bonds disappear after Mrs. Savage produces them and the family tries to discover who has taken them. At length the mystery of the bonds is cleared and Mrs. Savage is free to leave the asylum.

Dress rehearsals give the cast an opportunity to iron out the weak points of the play. Seated on the couch are Lilly Belle and Ethel. Samuel and Titus are standing.

The cast included Linda Koncak as Florence, Jay Houston as Hannibal, Gayle Mays as Fairy May, Lanny Brewer as Jeffrey, Peggy Moore and Marifranc Keeton alternated in the role of Mrs. Paddy.

The family consisted of Lewis Lindsey as Titus, Eric Manor as Samuel, Fredyann Levit as Lilly Belle and Connie Schilder as Ethel. Gay Straley as Miss Wilhelmina, the nurse; and Douglas Parks as Dr. Emmett rounded out the cast.

Believing Jeffrey to know the secret of the missing bonds, Titus resorts to force to try to find the answer. Miss Wilhelmina does the restraining.

YELLS, HALFTIME FIRE REB SPIRIT

The ASC Cheerleaders present an active picture as they engage in their specialty, Bruce Crabtree, Janet Morgan, Chuck Yeager, Larry Smith, Beth Byrnes, Kenny Kretzschmar, Gayle Hitt, and Judy Webb fill out the roster of the noise leaders.

Chuck Yeager pensively awaits the kickoff of the game with Abilene Christian College. A fourth quarter field goal gave ACC the victory by the meager score of 17-15.

Excitement lends itself to football as perhaps no other sport can. Bobby J. Lawson becomes grossly emmeshed in the goings on of his favorite team during the game with ACC.

The Sam Houston Rifles are a familiar sight at half time during football season. Their intricate maneuvers have won the group many prizes in competition with other college drill teams.

ARLINGTON FANS GO WITH TEAM TO WITNESS OUR 19-14 VICTORY

Larry Smith and Kenny Kretzschmar sign up Don Moore for the School trip to Trinity University. Twenty five students made the trip on a chartered Texas Motor Coach bus to the Alamo City to cheer the football team on to victory.

Three student groups traveled to San Antonio for the Trinity game. The Rebel Band, Sam Houston Rifles, and a special student chartered bus made the trip.

Tickets for the chartered bus were on sale in the Student Center and twenty five students went on the school sponsored trip.

Trinity was having its Homecoming that weekend and invited all ASC students making the trip to the after the game dance.

Ralph Shelton and Doug Hart, ASC football players, while away the hours with a card game on the long bus trip to San Antonio.

The game over, and his team victorious, Coach "Chena" Gilstrap flashes the familiar victory smile on the trip home. ASC won the game 19 to 14, spoiling the homecoming festivities for Trinity in the process.

ASC CANNON

AT TRINITY

No football game would be complete without the cannon, and the Vaqueros were on hand to fire it for the big game with Trinity. Bobby Green, Phil Clay, Gary Grady, and Bill Goodwin made the trip with the little noise maker.

President J. R. Woolf congratulates Coach Gilstrap after the game as Mrs. Woolf and the two Mmes. Gilstraps beamingly look on.

The hard fought game over, Coach Gilstrap helps his mother and wife pack their belongings and leave the stadium.

Ah, sleep, on thy blissful wings doth my heart take flight and all too happily I leave the cares of this world behind. The long day over, this dreamfilled pair succumb to the open arms of Morpheus.

Dr. Karl M. Dallenbach, head of the University of Texas psychology department, left, spoke at a meeting of the Psychology Club and was introduced by Robert Kogan.

TYPICAL FALL SCENES INCLUDE LUNCHEONS, PARTIES, PICTURES

The Reveille classes photographer's room was the scene of many happy faces and a few not so happy ones who felt that the proofs did or did not do them the justice they so richly deserved.

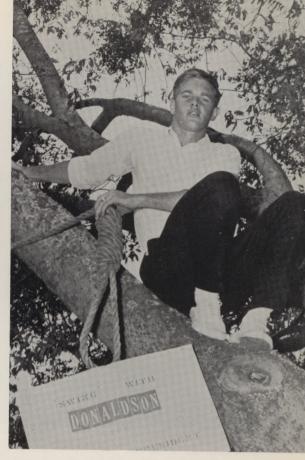

Joe Thorne of the art department, left, and the future artists ponder the relative merits behind the statement that it is "the pause that refreshes," at an Art Club pre-game party.

Ken Crawford and Warren MacMillan, tennis pros from Fort Worth, helped open the tennis courts, south of Memorial Stadium, by conducting a tennis clinic for students.

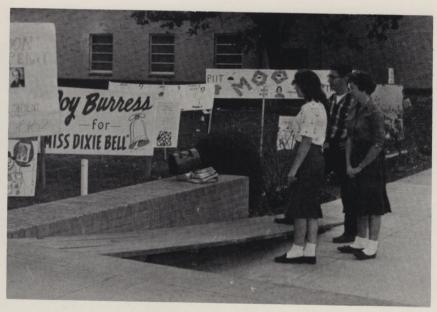

Dolores Mullenix and helpers install one of the many signs which dotted the campus at election time. A record number of students voted in this year's elections.

Out on a limb after making all his campaign promises, Perry Donaldson need have no fears as long as it's that end of the rope he's holding onto.

CANDIDATES SOLICIT VOTES TO WIN THAT BIG ELECTION

One of life's most pondering problems is that of trying to decide whom to vote for in the school elections. There are so many candidates to vote for and only having one vote requires no small amount of soul searching.

Val Puckett and Beth Moore cast their ballots as Wanda Wilson and Prentice Andres supervise the balloting. Voters had a wide selection to choose from with 40 students running for freshman class officers, 7 for Miss Dixie Belle, and 21 for REVEILLE favorites.

Surveying the work of Halloween pranksters who prematurely burned the bonfire, members of NCO Club pause in their wood gathering efforts. The ROTC department and inhabitants of Pachl Dorm took turns standing guard over the second bonfire.

The annual pre-homecoming bonfire is underway. Members of the ROTC department formed a cordon to keep away those with the foresight to bring hot dogs and marshmallows.

BONFIRE BECKONS CHEERING REBELS

Joy Burress, Elizabeth Blair and Judy Webb, finalists in the Miss Dixie Belle contest, with torches lit, get ready to light the big blaze.

From a respectable distance, this future ASCite isn't quite sure that the grown-up world is what it is cracked up to be.

As another bonfire bites the dust, the militant cheerleaders pause and pay final tribute to so worthy a creature.

CONFEDERATES RESPOND WITH ROUSING YELLS

Drums and other instruments known for their noise-making ability, combined with the human voice, were in ample profusion to instill within the student body a feeling of spirit and unity.

A short speech was necessary after Johnnie Grimmett had been presented with the honor of being named Mr. Rebel Spirit. Nancy Horn, Miss Rebel Spirit, had already made hers.

And just what do you mean that you will put me back in the car if I don't do the twist with you?

Well, I had heard it before but the expression on your face when you got to the punchline made me want to laugh all over again.

BONFIRE DANCE ENDS PEP RALLY

So what if I'm not overly graceful? The important thing about dancing is that it affords a release of pent up emotions and at last I feel fulfilled.

Oh, come on, I bet you say that to all the girls.

CLUBS FORM HOMECOMING PROCESSION

After the bonfire, Thursday night, Home-coming activities did not get fully under way until Saturday morning with the parade through the streets of downtown Arlington.

The ASC Band, Sam Houston Rifles, club sweethearts, and club-sponsored floats shared the spotlight as students, exes, and townspeople gathered to watch and cheer their favorites.

Floats in the parade were judged on beauty and originality. They were judged by Tom J. Vandergriff, mayor of Arlington; Dr. J. R. Woolf, president of the college; Gilbert Luke, Arlington businessman; and Mrs. E. H. Hereford, widow of the late president of the college.

The football game with Southwestern Oklahoma State College, and semi-formal dance afterwards climaxed this year's Homecoming.

The finalists in the Miss Dixie Belle contest wave at the crowd. The girls are Barbara Williams, Elizabeth Blair, Judy Webb, and Joy Burress. Johnny Reb is driving.

The ASC band, complete with majorettes, also took an active part in the parade by supplying the music for the marching feet.

The Sam Houston Rifles impressed the crowd during the parade by its display of military finesse and precision.

Student Council President Jimmy Harp, Karen Daugherty, and Dolores Mullenix, Miss ASC, shared an automobile as the Homecoming festivities got into full swing.

Kenny Kretzschmar presents the first place trophy to Sam Mitchell Jr. of the Art Club for the most original float in the Homecoming Parade.

Koshari entered a float in the parade which featured girls dressed in costumes and holding flags of many lands.

Enos was not the first chimp to be brought safely back after orbiting the earth. The Newman Club's Alphonzo was the first but his name was too long to fit into the newspaper so no mention was ever made of his flight.

"World Situations, 1961" was the theme of this year's parade. This Avolonte float depicted women of many lands.

ART CLUB WINS IN COMPETITION OF CLUB FLOATS

The ASC Rebel is managing to keep the bull dog at bay with its super cannon, donated by the En Ami.

The Karuso-Pteros float carried out the theme of the parade, which was "World Situations, 1961."

Pre-Law Club Sweethearts Mary Sue Stoddard and Fredyann Levit are chauffered in style by Bill Knapp and Tommy Willhoite in the Homecoming Parade through the streets of downtown Arlington.

HOMECOMING FLOATS TELL WORLD EVENTS

Glenn Wilkinson tows the United Christian Fellowship House float which dealt with the Tractors for Cuba movement.

Martha Sellers, Janet Petersen, and Karen Briggs wave and smile as the Avolonte float follows behind.

Main Street, Arlington, provided the parade route for the 1961 Homecoming. The Koshari social club with its float of girls dressed in costumes of foreign lands complete with appropriate flags was followed by the military department's and the Vaquero's floats.

Tom J. Vandergriff, mayor of Arlington; Mrs. Roy Carter, secretary of the Arlington Women's Chamber of Commerce; Mrs. E. H. Hereford, widow of the late president of ASC; and Mr. Gilbert Luke, of Luke Pontiac, and Dr. J. R. Woolf (not shown) judged Homecoming Parade floats.

PROCESSION HAS FOREIGN FLAVOR

Miss Rosemary Mathis, director of student activities, collected ballots from the judges. Seated are Mayor Vandergriff, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Hereford, Mr. Luke, Mrs. Luke, and President Woolf.

Despite a few more pounds here and there and a slightly different hair coloring (for those fortunate enough to have any left), these exes still recognized each other in their old class pictures.

Fred Bondurant, President of the Ex Students Association, presided over Homecoming.

Olga Baxter Crowned

DINNER HONORS COLLEGE EXES

Dr. J. R. Woolf, present President of ASC, and Mrs. Woolf were seated at the Homecoming Dinner next to the Dean of Grubbs Vocational College (Now ASC) in 1921, M. L. Williams, and Mrs. Williams.

Mrs. Olga Baxter, 1920-1922, was elected Coming Home Queen at 1961 Homecoming festivities. She was introduced to the crowd at the football game and at the Homecoming Dinner.

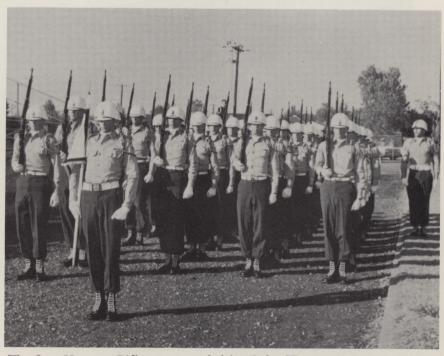

The last number of the band's half-time shows was always the Rebel Flag, complete with stars, and the solemn playing of the semi-official college song, "Dixie."

Max Morley, Drum major of the Arlington State College Rebel Band.

BAND, JODIES, AT HOMECOMING

The Sam Houston Rifles, commanded by Cadet Theron Arrington, prepare to march onto the field to begin their demonstrations of precise marching and close order drill.

Fred Bondurant, president of the Ex Students Association, and Mrs. Walter Baxter Jr., Coming Home Queen, greeted student queens at mid-field. Distinguished looking exes in the rear are C. B. Smith, Austin; Otho Morrow, Houston; E. E. Marshall, Farmersville; H. A. D. Dunsworth, professor, mathematics department; Charlie Zedlow, Luling; and D. R. Darwood, Alienda, Coahuila, Mexico.

BEAUTIES SCORE GAME HALF - TIME

Barbara Williams, finalist for Miss Dixie Belle, and Wayne Crowley.

Dolores Mullenix, Miss ASC, was escorted by Jimmy Harp, Student Council president.

Miss Dixie Belle, Judy Webb and Johnny Reb, George Phillips.

Joy Burress, finalist for Miss Dixie Belle, and Freddie Arnold.

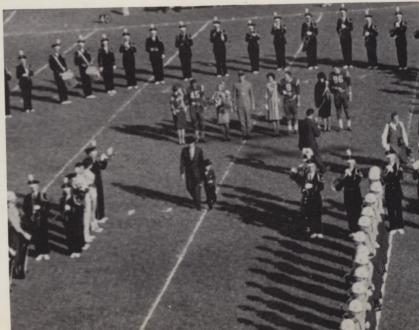

President J. R. Woolf presents the winner's bouquet to Judy Webb, Miss Dixie Belle of 1961-62. Joy Burress, a finalist in the Miss Dixie Belle contest, and escort, Freddie Arnold are onher left. On her right is her escort, Johnny Reb, George Phillips. The young man is President Woolf's son.

ASC cadets and dates cheered wildly for their team.

ASC NAMES JUDY WEBB DIXIE BELLE

Dr. Woolf and attendant walk away following the awarding of the coveted title of Miss Dixie Belle to Judy Webb. The finalists pictured are Joy Burress, Elizabeth Blair, and Barbara Williams. Also shown are their escorts, members of the band, and the Sam Houston Rifles.

REBELS ĐOWN SW OKLAHOMA IN 27-0 WIN

Before the victory celebration, some of the longest minutes in the lives of both the players and the coaches must be spent. Those long minutes are those which are spent from the sidelines watching the progress, or if the game is not going too well, the falling behind of the team. Fortunately, in the Homecoming Game, neither the team nor coaches were ever too worried about the final outcome of the game.

Bill Rourke, "B" team coach, rear, peered apprehensively while Claude "Chena" Gilstrap, head coach, and Judd Ramsey, backfield coach, seemed pleased with the happenings.

John Niederauer was hoisted on the shoulders of teammates Robert Conn and Norman Harris after the 27-0 defeat of Southwestern Oklahoma State.

Amos North, Freddie Arnold, David Skinner, Roger Richardson, and Larry McFaddin sat several plays out as their teammates carried on the fight.

Roger Jones was hoisted topside, too, for his part in the Homecoming game. Richard Krystinik and Neil Estes headed happily for the showers.

Standing in the background, her torch raised upward, the Statue of Liberty reigned over the downstairs ballroom at the Homecoming Dance.

The Church of Christ Bible Chair Open House after the Homecoming Game furnished the locale for the intellectual stimulant of the game of royalty.

GAME VICTORY ADDS REVELRY TO HOMECOMING

Another couple pause to admire the Statue of Liberty, the handiwork of Myrtie Rogers and Ronald Williams of the art department.

Dancing beneath the gaily decorated ceiling of the ballroom, these revelers were made happier by the 27-0 score at the preceding Homecoming game.

Governor and Mrs. Price Daniel were enthralled spectators at the Tyler Rose Festival.

JODIES APPEAR IN ROSE SHOW AT TYLER GALA

No, fellows, it's not fastened too securely. It's rumored that the sign may be found in one of the boy's dorms.

Sam Houston Rifles went through some last minute straightening up and brass shining prior to appearing in the festival. Unhelmeted cadets are Jody candidates and customarily do much of the dirty work, until they become Jodies.

The famed Kilgore Rangerettes were also participants in the Tyler Rose Festival. The girls are well known throughout the country for their intricate and precise dancing and twirling.

Rhonald Bateman blew taps as the last rites were held for the old Rebel Band Hall. The old building went the way of all old buildings which stand in the way of progress. . .to the nearest junk pile, or bon fire, whichever was the closer.

PLAY, PARTIES SPARK FALL

Sandra McDowell, Kathi Higgins, and Anita Coleman go the Appian Way one step further with their Italian supper at a meet ing of the Press Club held just before the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Faught, (she's an Instructor in the English department and a Press Club faculty adviser ) were guests at the Press Club dinner.

The newest completed addition to the ever expanding college plant, the E. H. Hereford Student Center, was gaily lit up during the Christmas season. Sandbags in front of the building were an ROTC project to sell tickets for the military ball.

STUDENT CENTER RADIATES GAY SPIRIT OF YULE

B L. Smith, data processing department, appears perplexed as to whether he should get to work or listen to Christmas carols. The IBM computer at right can do either.

During Government Emphasis Week, the history and sociology department brought in many outstanding political and governmental figures. Federal district Judge Leo Brewster, second from left, is shown with Howard Becknell; Thurman Jasper, mathematics department; and Steve Baker.

Friendly persuasion did its share in selling tickets to the military ball. (The machine gun may have helped a little.)

ROTC PRESENTS WINTER BALL

Sandra Powell, last year's Corps Sweet heart with escort Norman Nicholson.

Barbara Williams, deputy Corps Sweetheart with escort Bill Riggs

Leta Denning, last year's deputy Corps Sweetheart with escort Roger Jones.

MISS McCULLER BEGINS REIGN AS SWEETHEART

The grand ballroom of the E. H. Hereford Student Center was aglow with the colored streamers and stars which pronounced the theme of the Military Ball. The theme, of course, was "Stars and Stripes Forever." The ball is the prominent social feature of the military department each year, and was well attended by members of the corps as well as the "civilian" members of the campus. Dianne McCuller was presented to the guests as ROTC Sweetheart. With the honor of being Corps Sweetheart, Dianne gained the honorary rank of cadet colonel in the corps. Barbara Williams was installed as Deputy Corps Sweetheart and attained the rank of honorary cadet lieutenant colonel.

Dianne McCuller, ROTC Sweetheart, and Cadet Col. Billy P. Roe walk under the arch of crossed swords as they proceed to the center stage.

Dianne McCuller and Billy P. Roe are on stage and are flanked by Judy Bond (left, rear), Beverly Barton, and Leta Denning, last years' Deputy Corps Sweetheart. Beth Moore (front, right), Jan Michelson, Sandra Powell; last years' Sweetheart, Janet McCauley, Dee Dee Jury, and Barbara Williams, deputy Corps Sweetheart.

Creighton Escoe and Paul Kautz apply their decorative talents to the Student center for the Snow Ball, held the middle of December.

The venerable Fat Man paused in the midst of his busy rounds to have a cup with Dean Gillespie and Dean Hancock.

SNOW BALL SETS LIVELY YULE MOOD

Highlight of the Christmas Season is the annual Snow Ball. This year's ball featured two bands, one upstairs and another downstairs in the Student Center. Focal point of the evening occurs when the couples gather round and sing carols in order not to forget the true meaning of Christmas.

Old friends met and the air was filled with the joyful excitement of the forthcoming holidays at the Snow Ball.

Drawing from Santa's grab bag in advance of his already arranged yearly visit proved to be great sport for these ASC students.

"Yas, sir, it's jest as I wuz sayin' to Liza, Liza, we shouldn't oughtta go in that man's watermelon patch no mo'."

REB BAND HAS SWINGING TIME

The Rebel and ROTC bands, not wanting to devote all their time to the making of music, manage to engage in a little extra curricular mirth and merry making at their masquerade party. At the party held in Grand Prairie, band members turned up in every different kind of costume imaginable, and then some. Band members work on the theory that when they work, they should work hard, and play should be the same way. Various parties are held throughout the school year.

This bandsman, nattily attired in his best party clothes, added only the galoshes to his everyday clothes to achieve the unique effect.

On your mark. . .Get set. . .STUMBLE. Nothing promotes that feeling of togetherness more than a three-legged sack race.

In a tough test of physical stamina and endurance, the study weary Vaqueros got a chance to prove that brawn does have its advantages over brain.

The girls, not to be outdone by the muscle bound boys, also got to engage in a manly tug-of-war.

So I said to myself, "Self, if George Sand could smoke cigars, why shouldn't I?"

VAQUEROS LIKE ROUGH SPORT

Twice yearly, the Vaqueros take to the open country away from the strict confines of city life and let their western bent run rampant. While using man's oldest beast of burden, the horse, for pleasure the Vaqueros are in their glory. The open air and the pleasant aroma of saddle leather add much to the day's activities. Such sports as cigarette rolling and cigar smoking contests for the girls cast inhibitions to the wind as the day wore on.

Rescue riding, a very necessary feature of the rodeo circuit, was practiced and demonstrated as a more serious feature of the Field Day.

HONOR SOCIETIES

ENGINEERS RANK IN TOP EIGHTH FOR MEMBERSHIP

Epsilon Nu Gamma is the college engineering honor society. The society recognizes outstanding students in the field of engineering. To be eligible for membership, students must rank in the upper one-eighth of their junior engineering class, or they must be in the upper one-fifth of their senior engineering class. Faculty sponsors are Dr. W. H. Nedderman, dean of engineering; Dr. A. E. Salis, professor and head of the electrical engineering department; Prof. G. E. Smith, assistant to the dean of engineering; and Dr. C. L. R. Barker, associate professor, mechanical engineering department.

ROW 1: C. O. Pope, vice-president; Charles Hester, president; Gene Goolsby, cataloguer. ROW 2: C. L. Barker, G. E. Smith, A. E. Salas, sponsors.

Sigma Tau Delta

ENGLISH FRATERNITY STRESSES READING, WRITING, FELLOWSHIP

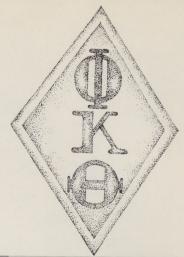

ROW 1: Martha Stanton, historian; Anita Coleman, reporter; ROW 2: Mary Ann Lyon, secretary; Russell Sparling, president; Karen Martin, vice-president.

Sigma Tau Delta is the honorary English fraternity on campus. Purpose of the fraternity is to promote the mastery of written expression, encourage worthwhile reading, and foster a spirit of fellowship among men and women majoring in English. Membership is open to students majoring in English who have at least a "B" average in English and an overall "B" average. Dr. Margaret Lee Wiley, professor, English department, is sponsor.

SCHOLARS' CLUB REQUIRES HIGH GRADE AVERAGE

ASC's oldest organization, Phi Kappa Theta, is the honorary scholastic society. Membership in the society is by invitation only and requires an overall grade point average of at least 2.5. Sponsors are Dr. Anne Whaling, associate professor, English department; and Dr. E. C. Barksdale, professor and head of history and sociology department.

M. D. Brem, treasurer; Cora Anne Scottino, secretary; Allan Price, president.

Psychology

CLUB VALUES SCHOLARSHIP IN SCIENCE

Membership in the Psychology Club is open to all interested students who have completed twelve hours of psychology with at least a "B" average. Purpose of the club is to promote an interest in psychology as a science, and to encourage scholarship. Speakers and field trips supplement and highlight the regular bimonthly meetings. Club sponsor is Dr. Jean J. Shelton, assistant professor, psychology department.

MILITARY VIGOR REMAINS

The Arlington State ROTC department has remained one of the mainstays of instructional courses offered, despite four changes in the emphasis of the College.

In 1896, Dr. James McCoy Carlisle founded the Carlisle Military Academy in Arlington, Texas. Some years later, the name was changed to Grubbs Vocational School, but the military features of the school were retained.

Still later, the name was changed once again to the North Texas Agricultural College, but military courses were compulsory until 1954. The name of the College was changed once again in 1954, when it became Arlington State College.

With military training no longer compulsory, the department lost approximately 200 per cent of its enrollment. The enrollment has risen considerably over the past few years, and now there are over 600 men enrolled in the ROTC classes.

In May, 1962, twenty-six cadets are scheduled to be commissioned as officers in the United States Army. Of this total, 13 cadets may be commissioned as regular Army officers, while the remaining 13 cadets will be commissioned as reserve officers.

CORPS AIDED BY AUXILIARY ROTC STAFFS

The Battle Group staff is comprised of the cadet battle group commander, the deputy battle group commander, and the executive officer. The S1, S2, S3, and S4 officer, an assistant S3 and S4 officer, the communications officer, and the sergeant major are also on the staff. The staff serves as intermediary between corps and faculty.

The Color Guard is selected from the outstanding cadets for the honor of carrying the colors at parades and corps functions.

The grading staff judges the companies during the weekly drills to determine the winning company for the week.

The purpose of the German Club is to broaden the students' knowledge of Germany and the German people, by studying the people through films and by talks on Germany. The club, open to all students interested in German, has as its sponsor Dr. L. John Parker, acting head of the foreign language department.

RIFLE TEAM POPULAR SPORT FOR GIRLS

The girls' rifle team is composed of girls taking rifle through the physical education department and girls who are interested in firing the rifles and being on the team. The girls' rifle team competes in several postal matches throughout the year. M/Sgt. J. W. Morris, of the military department, is the coach.

IRC STIRS INTEREST IN FOREIGN LANDS

The International Relations Club is designed to give American students a better and more accurate idea of the way of life in foreign countries. Foreign speakers at the monthly meetings provide members with a more vivid picture of the people and their problems encountered in their native countries. Miss Mietzl Jane Miller, instructor in the business and economics department, is the sponsor.

ROW 2: Sam Isham, Janet Hearne, Carolyn Dyer, Angela Gaston, Tony Santamaria. ROW 3: Don Ellis, Melinda Munneke, Rebecca Grimland, Sam Jamison.

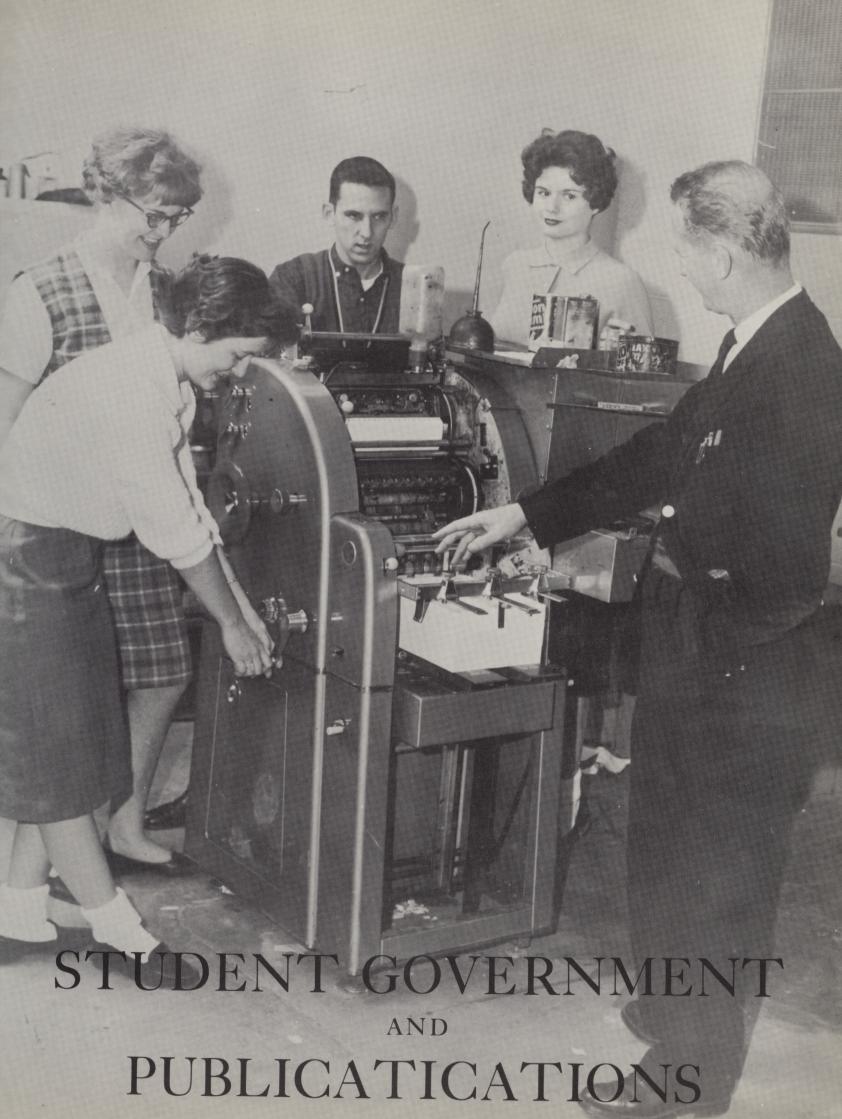

Spanish Club membership is open to all students having the desire to learn more about Spanish-speaking people and their customs. One of the newer clubs on campus, the Spanish Club has guest speakers give informative and educational "arm chair tours" through the land. Virgil L. Poulter, instructor of foreign languages, is faculty sponsor.

BURKHOLDER DIRECTS STAGE BAND

The ASC Stage Band is composed of music students who have an interest in and a talent for concert jazz and dance music. Under the direction of Dan Burkholder, the stage band travels with the Rebel Choir on its concert tours. The band also plays for groups in and around college area.

STUDENT COUNCIL GOVERNS CAMPUS

The Student Council is organized to serve as a liaison between the students and faculty and the students and administration; and to promote, organize, and govern student activities. Some members are elected by the student body while the remainder are appointed by the officers and sponsors of the council. The Constitution of the Student Council limits the membership of the council to twenty five members and seven faculty sponsors. Sponsors for the council are faculty chairman, Thurman M. Jasper, associate professor, mathematics department; Emory E. Estes, assistant professor, English department; O. R. Whiteside, instructor, engineering technology department; Mrs. Kirby L. Betts, instructor, art department; Horace F. Gillespie, Dean of Men; Mrs. Lera D. Hancock, Dean of Women; Miss Rosemary Mathis, director of student activities.

JOINT STAFF RULES CLUBS

Composed of the president and an elected representative from each one of the seven girls' social clubs, the Interclub Council is the agency which governs the social clubs. Definite rules and regulations have been laid down as to the operation of the clubs and it is the Interclub Council which insures the observance of these rules. The Council also sets the procedures to be followed during Pledge Week. Meetings are held once a month throughout the school year. Dean Lera D. Hancock is sponsor of the Council and Melba Hammack, assistant professor, English department, is cosponsor.

DORM GROUP SETS RULES AT LIPSCOMB

Interpreting college and house regulations and disciplining students who commit minor infractions of these regulations is one of the functions of the Lipscomb Dorm Council. Disciplinary recommendations are given in the event that a major regulation is broken by an offending resident of the dormitory. Officers of the Council are elected during the Spring semester to serve for the entire school year beginning the following fall. In addition, two girls are elected from each floor of the dorm and one girl is elected from each of the four classes, at an election held in the fall.

DAVIS COUNCIL KEEPS DORM CLEAN, ORDERLY

The Davis Dorm Council is composed of upper classmen of the ROTC who are responsible for the care and cleaning of Davis Dorm. Davis Dorm is run much like an Army barracks and each resident is responsible for its appearance. It is the Dorm Council who supervises the cleaning and metes out punishment to guilty offenders of the established rules. Regular inspections are an integral part of living in Davis Dorm and are a foretaste of what many may come to know a little more closely when their tour of duty begins upon graduation or enlistment in the Armed Forces.

PACHL COUNCIL INSTRUCTS NEW DORM MEMBERS

The Pachl Dorm councilors are a group of upper classmen who are assigned the duty of indoctrinating the incoming new students in the ways of dorm life. The boys helped are primarily freshmen and for many, it is their first extended time of being away from home. The councilors duty is to make this adjustment as painless as possible for the new residents of the dorm and the ones who have lived there before. The councilors are elected by the residents of the dorm.

THE REVEILLE

Serveral changes distinguish this year's Reveille from the ASC yearbooks of previous years. Major changes are the change in type, the addition of newspaper style headlines, and short copy blocks unifying the pictures on the page. More coverage is given to clubs and campus organizations, and more pictures provide a more interesting annual.

The theme of the 1962 Reveille, "Industry and Progress," was brought even more to mind with the completion of the new gymnasium and the beginning of the new science building. Planned landscaping was brought to the campus, and more social and cultural activities were made available to students as progress rolled forward.

Hopes and dreams are built on progress. Each adds to and complements the other. Without them we have nothing. With them we may be the authors of that which is good and beautiful in life.

The Reveille is the culmination of a dream we had.

THE SHORTHORN

To the students:

The Shorthorn, the official student newspaper of ASC, is published weekly during the fall and spring semesters and four times during the summer sessions. The staff strives to present to the students and faculty an objective and comprehensive coverage of the events on campus.

When first begun, the Shorthorn was printed in pamphlet form but was changed to its present newspaper format in 1921. It is both an organ of college news and a training ground for future journalists. Paul S. Blakney, assistant professor of English, is faculty sponsor.

THE ARLINGTON REVIEW

STAFF: ROW 1: Andrew Tuma, Emory Whipple, Kennette Harrison, Joe Thornton. ROW 2: Harvey Armour, Nolan Leon Wells, Jim Woodson, Tommy Biggs.

Editor Joe Thornton makes a list of stories submitted for publication in The Arlington Review.

Kennette Harrison, Jim Woodson, and Harvey Armour meet to discuss the merits of a new type of layout.

To the students:

The Arlington Review is the newest member of the journalistic triumvirate. It published its first edition of the magazine this spring. Containing articles contributed by students from the different departments of the College, The Arlington Review is devoted to the more literary offerings of each department.

Material was submitted by students to departmental editors. It was then edited by the departmental editors, who were chosen by members of the faculty, and passed on to an editor-in-chief. The editor-in-chief then assembled the material into the manner in which it was to be printed and took it to the printer.

After printing, the magazine was delivered to the students and copies of it were exchanged with other colleges and universities which print a similar magazine. The Arlington Review is to be published bi-annually.

The most frustrating part of registration was trying to arrange a workable schedule fitting in all those needed classes.

7,205 ENROLL FOR SPRING

Four times a year, students go through the harrowing experience known as registration. (Some of the more fortunate need go through it only twice yearly.) On the first day of the spring registration, 6,853 students registered. By the 12th day of classes, 7,205 individuals were enrolled in their respective classes. And not one fatality resulted from the process.

Parting with the cash is easily the hardest feature of registration.

The honorary title of professor emeritus was awarded to two former members of the ASC faculty in ceremonies held in the E. H. Hereford Student Center. On Feb 2, Miss Zelda Ramsey was awarded the title of professor emeritus of business administration. Miss Ramsey, who retired on Feb. 1, was guest of honor at a tea and reception following the presentation.

Two weeks before, on Jan. 16, Col. Earl D. Irons was awarded the title of professor emeritus of music by Dr. J. R. Woolf, president of the college. Col. Irons, until his retirement in 1958, had been professor of music at ASC since 1925. One of the highpoints of the presentation ceremony was Col. Iron's conducting of one of his own compositions, "The Colonel's Choice."

Miss Zelda Ramsey admires the tray which was presented to her by J. D. Bryant, assistant to the president. The tray was given to Miss Ramsey for her outstanding service in the thirty-seven years which she has been on the ASC faculty.

CADETS GET COMMISSIONS

At the end of the fall semester a ceremony in the military department commemorated the graduation of ROTC cadets. The ceremony included a swearing in procedure for the graduates, giving them the rank of second lieutenant. Major General R. J. Fleming, of the U. S. Army, inspected the corps. A reception followed for the graduating cadets, college officials, and ROTC cadets.

Officials present were Gen. R. J. Fleming, Col. J. H. Chambers, President Woolf, Dean Wendell Nedderman, Dean Thomas Keim, Registrar Charles Nelson, and Mr. W. S. Harper of the Church of Christ Bible Chair.

Carlos Montoya

The Arlington State 1961-62 Convocation series was the first since World War II to come to the ASC Campus. Several entertainers from Europe and the United States gave performances in the college program. In addition to the presentations at ASC, a similar plan for the public was sponsored by the Community Concert Association of Arlington.

The Orchestra San Pietro of Naples was the first to appear in the college series in December. The twenty-one piece orchestra, under the direction of Renato Ruotolo, presented some of the works of Mozart, Hayden, and Cimarosa.

The Ballet Janine Charrat de France came to ASC in February. The Paris troupe came to America following several tours throughout continental Europe and the United Kingdom. The troupedanced both classical and contemporary ballet. Yvonne Meyer and Janine Charrat were the female stars. Milenko Banovitch danced in the male lead.

Carlos Montoya starred in a spring program of the college series in March. Montoya, a master of the Spanish flamenco guitar, has entertained audiences in every part of the world.

In May Charles Laughton and his show, "An Evening with Charles Laughton," completed the 1961-62 series at the College. A serious fall and injury had caused Mr. Laughton to cancel an earlier engagement here.

The Arlington Community Concert Series featured such entertainers as the Loewenguth Quartet; the Telscheks, a duno-piano team; the Lenox Quartet; and Carol Smith, contralto.

ARTISTS DRAW ATTENTION

Art in many forms is greatly appreciated here. The work of a modernistic artist draws the amused attention of two students as they speculate on the whereabouts of the fifth bird in the painting "Five Birds."

The library purchased two valuable art books with a $50 donation from the Circle K. One deals with Italian glassware, and the other tells the history of Swiss watch making.

Commercial art found its place in the Southwestern Advertising Art Exhibit on display here. The exhibition showed the best examples of advertising art produced in the Dallas-Fort Worth area in 1961.

A program of planned landscaping was launched in the spring. Old trees like the one pictured were removed from the Campus for the renovation of ASC's landscape.

The smoke stack from the old power plant was torn down to make way for a new heating and cooling system.

WORK LAUNCHES NEW LANDSCAPE

Plans for expansion and beautification of the ASC campus were in full swing as spring approached. Removal of most of the trees located on Second Street between Cooper and West Streets was the first phase for remodeling the landscape. More than forty new trees were planted in a more orderly fashion. The aim in the landscaping program is to transform Second Street from Cooper to West into a shaded mall.

The 125-foot smoke stack on the corner of Third and West Streets was torn down in March. The 45-year-old landmark was removed to make way for progress and expansion. A new heating and cooling plant is to be built on the site. The new plant will house equipment to be used to heat and cool all new buildings on campus.

The smoke stack was originally built to provide a natural draft for the gas-fed boilers at ASC. The old system was not compatible with the expansion program.

The new activities gymnasium nears completion as the spring semester progresses. The building will be used for physical education classes and student sports activities such as swimming matches. Municipal basketball games will not be played in the new gymnasium, however.

Groundwork is begun for the new science building which is scheduled for completion in September, 1963. Lecture amphitheaters, laboratories, and the office of the Dean of Arts and Sciences will be housed in the new building.

Hunt Hodges, as Angelina, begins to sing in the court-room. Hunt played the part of a woman spurned in the ASC spring production of "Trial By Jury."

MUSICAL TRIAL STAGED IN MAY

"Trial By Jury," a Gilbert and Sullivan musical was presented by the music department at Arlington State in May as a part of the spring concert.

A satire on English court procedure, the musical concerns a breach of promise suit brought against Edwin, the defendant by Angelina, the plaintiff. Since his engagement to Angelina, Edwin falls in love with another girl. The breach of promise suit results.

Leading roles in the musical were taken by Jerry Partain, the defendant; Hunt Hodges, plaintiff; Robert Shehane, the judge; Leon Voyles, counsel; Joe McKinney, usher; and Arlis Lansford, foreman.

VAQUEROS, NIRA SPONSOR RODEO

ASC Vaqueros and the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association jointly sponsored the Third Annual Vaquero Stampede at the Kow Bell arena, in Mansfield, south of Arlington, on March 15, 16, and 17. Fourteen colleges, including Texas Christian University, Texas A & M, and the University of Texas, participated in the events.

Contestants entered bulldogging, bareback bronc riding, saddle bronc riding, bull riding, calf roping, ribbon roping, girl's goat tying, and girls' barrel racing. Winners in each event received trophies or trophy buckles.

The winning team was presented with the Bill Hogg Memorial Trophy, named for the co-founder of NIRA at Texas A & M. The all-around cowboy was presented with a trophy saddle; the all-around cowgirl received a trophy.

SHARED WORK HAS STUDENT APPROBATION

Students seem to like togetherness in all kinds of scholastic activities. Doing homework or research in the library is much easier with the aid of a second person. Now that the ASC library has expanded, it is sometimes difficult for one person to know where everything is. Cleaning guns in the armory seems to be more an individual task than is gleaning information from the library. Baking students have found time to laugh as they strive to perfect their culinary skills. Students and teachers are often seen conferring on some problem involved with classwork.

PLAYERS PRODUCE INHERIT THE WIND

The Arlington State Little Theatre produced "Inherit the Wind," a Jerome Lawrence-Robert E. Lee play, in March. The play revolves around a Tennessee trial in which a school teacher is charged with violating both the law of God and of man. The teacher had stated to a class of youths the fundamentals of Darwin's theory of evolution.

Members of the cast were Rachel, Beth Moore; Cates, William Eades, Reverend Brown, Nolan Wells; Melinda, Michele Stein; Howard, Raleigh Brickell.

Hornbeck, Jack Selby; Mrs. Brady, Rachel Blocker; Davenport, James Mac Martin; Judge, Eric Manor; Mayor, Tom Wooten.

Mrs. Krebbs, Connie Schilder; Mrs. McClain, Gayle Mays; Mrs. Blair, Marifranc Keeton; Mrs. Loomis, Rebecca Dennis; Bollinger, Gene Meadors.

Mr. Goodfellow, Carl Welton; Platt, James Ball; Elijah, Jim Styne; Timmy, Adrian Hamby.

Dunlap, Al Davis; Sillers, Larry Bauer; Harry Esterbrook, Lanny Brewer; Mathew Harrison Brady, Jay Houston; and Henry Drummond, Bill Williamson.

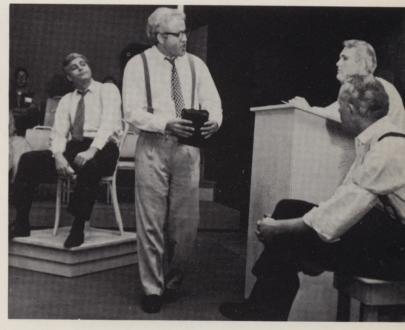

"Inherit the Wind" was given once before at ASC five years ago. The world premier of the play took place at the Margo Jones Theater in Dallas. The ASC production featured nine members of the original cast.

REBELS MAKE TO REPEL

Arlington State celebrated Old South Days March 22-24. An ASC Dixieland band began the activities between the engineering and Student Center buildings. Master of Ceremonies Arvid A. Anderson, assistant professor of business and economics, conducted a swearing-in ceremony for recruits in the Confederate Army. Gen. Robert E. Lee, SFC Walter B. Dixon of the military department, then gave a battle report for the benefit of the new recruits.

College Street was blocked off for the celebrations. An important feature of the March 24 celebrations was "Gray Day," and all students were urged to wear the color. The Dixie Museum in the Jeff Davis room exhibited Confederate bank drafts and money, uniforms, swords, guns, flags, and other articles.

Jefferson Davis, Thomas L. Fisher of the speech department, gave a State of the Confederacy address. Miss ASC was introduced to the student body following the address, and later at the Old South Ball.

Games offering cash prizes to individual winners and a trophy to the winning organization was conducted on the Student Center lawn. Students competed in a potato race, a sack race, a three-legged race, a pancake-flipping contest, and a Rebel yell contest. The Old South Ball terminated the 1962 celebration.

JAMES ATWARD BALL, radio and television department; junior from Arlington. Overall average 1.3.

Who's Who at Arlington State nominees were chosen by department heads in the spring semester. The students selected came from the top academic class the College offers in each department.

Each Who's Who was selected on the basis of academic superiority and outstanding promise shown in their chosenfields as undergraduates.

Because the Reveille staff believes that scholastic accomplishments should be stressed, the 1962 Who's Who representatives were given a place of honor at the head of the features division, and some of the major accomplishments and campus honors of each selectee were listed under the individual pictures.

All academic departments, including those offering twoyear plans and those offering associate degrees, were given an opportunity to be represented.

STUDENT WINS COVETED GRANT

Russell Sparling, a senior English major, was announced in March as the winner of a Woodrow Wilson Fellowship award. He was the first ASC student to receive this distinction.

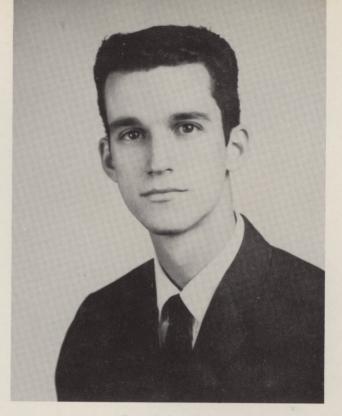

The scholarships are given each year to a select group of academically superior students who wish to prepare themselves further in graduate schools before entering the college teaching profession.

Sparling plans to study at Duke University, where he will specialize in American romantic literature.

The Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation operates under a grant from the Ford Foundation. The awards pay all living expenses, tuition, and fees for each winner. Only one or two out of every one hundred college seniors in the United States and Canada is nominated for the honor.

Sparling's ASC campus activities have included being president of Sigma Tau Delta; a 1961-62 recipient of the Nancy Jones English Scholarship; and a member of Phi Kappa Theta.

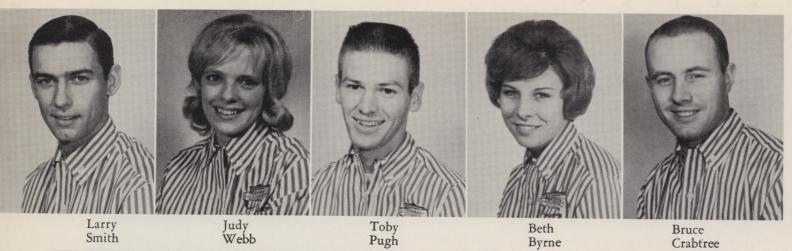

The 23-year-old awardee is married and the father of a 20-month-old son.

Miss ASC Active In Campus Clubs

Dolores Mullenix, a junior English major from Dallas, was elected as Miss ASC by the students. She has been active in campus activities during the past three years. Some of her honors are president of Sans Souci social club for two years, member of the honor roll; Reveille favorite for two years; secretary of the freshman class 1959-60; majorette for three years; Coronation princess in 1960; Reveille assistant editor, 1959-61; secretary of the band, 1961; member of Phi Kappa Theta; member of the Press Club, member of the Inter-Club Council, member of the Student Council, 1960-61; and a finalist for Miss Dixie Belle, 1960. Dolores was presented as Miss ASC at the 1961 homecoming game. She was also presented at other important functions in her capacity as Miss ASC.

Miss ASC finds no trouble keeping score.

Judges Choose Six Beauties

Six Reveille Beauty finalists were chosen on stage in February by three judges. Selection was made from 18 semi-finalists. Each girl appeared on stage twice: once in dressy attire and once in formal costume.

ASC students, parents, and friends attended the contest. Judges in the finals were Mrs. Walker Echols, the former Mary Nell Hendricks, Miss Texas of 1959; Doyle Vinson, WBAP (channel 5) "Texas News" editor; and Prof. J. D. Bryant, assistant to the president at ASC. They based their selection of the beauties on complexion, makeup, hair, poise, and grace.

Three Arlington judges had selected the 18 semifinalists the previous week. Fifty contestants had submitted photographs of themselves. Snapshots were not acceptable.

Judges in the semi-finals were Tom Vandergriff, mayor of Arlington; Carol Hodges, women's editor of the Daily News Texan; and Mrs. Persis Foster, Miss Persis School of Dance in Arlington. Selection of the semi-finalists was based only on photographs.

Each campus club and organization was urged in the fall semester to enter two contestants in the contest. Club girls not sponsored by organizations were allowed to enter the contest independently. All contestants were at least second semester freshmen with at least a "C" average.

The six Reveille Beauties were presented with gold engraved charm bracelets by the Reville staff in the Awards Day ceremony at the end of the spring semester.

Escorts in the final judging were Paul Kautz, Bill Goodwin, Doug Funk, and Waymon Little. Master of Ceremonies was Jim Styne.

CLAUD GILSTRAP COACHES NINTH WINNING SEASON

Claud "Chena" Gilstrap Head Coach and Athletic Director

Arlington State went into its third season of senior college football with a 13-5 record.

Ten weekends and several close finishes later, the count was 20-8. The Rebs lost to McMurry by a point. And Abilene used a last second field goal to win by two points, 17-15.

For ASC Coach Claud Gilstrap, it was the ninth winning season since he came to ASC in 1953. Arlington has won 77 of 96 games with two ties in those nine seasons.

Team captains during the season were Charlie Key, Roger Jones, Freddie Arnold, and Wayne Crowley.

SOUTHERNERS PASS; REBS CRASH 30 - 7

Rebel Allen Anz (13) is nabbed by Mississippi guard Dan Salmon (63) after a short gain.

Left to right: Jesse McGuire (26), Norman Harris, Art Driskell (68) and Roger Richardson (27) on the front row.

Way down yonder in the land of cotton there is one old team that won't be forgotten, at least not by Arlington State's 1961 football folks.

When the Rebels went to Hattiesburg to open their third senior college season, Mississippi Southern was unfriendly enough to out score them 30-7. Down in the land of mint juleps and corn pone, Rebels are usually welcomed with open cider barrels. But not this time, no suh.

The Southerners were led by quarterback Don Fuell, a man with a high octane rating. He kept handing the ball to Wendell Campbell or John Sklopan.

Other times he took long hikes around the ASC flanks, 56 yards in eight roll-outs. When he wasn't doing that foolishness, he or one of the other two Southern passers was throwing the ball to some smart aleck halfback or end like Mike Olander. They were successful 14 of 25 times for 261 yards.

The Southerners were pretty methodical about the whole thing. They scored in every quarter. Campbell was the first Southerner to pitch his tent in the ASC end zone. (This is sportsese for "he scored the first touchdown.") The score came at the end of a 59-yard march. Fuell kicked the first of his three extra points.

In the second quarter, Sklopan kept knocking over people-mostly Rebels-until he had advanced the ball within one yard on the Reb end zone. "I'll take over from here boy," Fuell said. And so saying, he took one giant step across the goal line.

At this point Arlington, pushed by a midget quarter-back named Allen Anz, went 66 yards in 13 plays for a touchdown. Jessie McGuire went over from three yards out. Charlie Key kicked the extra point and everyone went to the dressing room for half time.

If the Southerners were unfriendly before the intermission, they certainly were afterward. Sklopan went six yards to score, Jerrel Wilson kicked a 34-yard field goal and freshman quarterback Billy Coleman intercepted Amos North's pass and ran 76 yards for a touchdown. Meanwhile, up in the stands, two of the 8,000 watchers were having one blank of a fight. From the press box all you could see was flying arms. But from that, the action seemed most spirited. It went on for ten minutes or so, since the crowd was in no hurry to let lawmen through to breakup the fight.

For ASC it was a long trip.

A S C MAKES CHANGES TO TRIP USL 26-0

There were some changes made after Arlington State returned home from its 7-30 loss to Mississippi Southern.

Allen Anz, who had directed the Rebs' lone touchdown at Hattiesburg, was moved to the first unit. Bruce Couch and Ralph Shelton began to operate as defensive ends on both the first and second teams while Roger Jones and Wayne Crowley played only offense.

The move was made after Southern ball carriers, especially Don Fuell, made considerable yardage on the ASC flanks. With the University of Southwestern Louisiana in town, ASC had a chance to test the new arrangement. And everything checked out 100 per cent as the Rebels won 26-0.

On the first play from scrimmage, Charlie Key charged up the Bulldog's middle for 23 yards. Anz stepped a yard into the end zone 13 plays later. Then Doug Wilson brought the second unit in and added seven more points in ten plays.

Key was the leading ground gainer as he picked up 71 yards on 11 rushes.

Arlington State scored another touchdown. They did this often on the way to a 7-3 season.

"The hands, Al. Watch where you're running, Al. All right, Al?" That's Charlie Key (8) knocking down a Bulldog for Allen Anz (13).

ARLINGTON KO'S SFA IN SECOND ROUND

Jesse McGuire (26) takes a pass against Stephen F. Austin as the Rebs won, 26-0.

In spite of everything, the Arlington State-Stephen F. Austin game, won 26-0 by ASC, will probably be remembered as the night of the terrible fight.

After Allen Anz, Doug Wilson, Bobby Jack Lawson and Charlie Key scored touchdowns and the score had reached the 26-0 count, the real battle broke-out.

The Lumberjacks had failed to make a first down following Charlie Key's touchdown. And Ronnie Redd punted from his own 25 yard line.

Rebel halfback John Neiderauer waited on his 25, but he dropped the ball. However he recovered quickly and headed for the right sideline.

John made four yards before being tackled out of bounds. As Neiderauer started to get up, a rather large and more than somewhat angry Stephen F. arrived to secure the tackle.

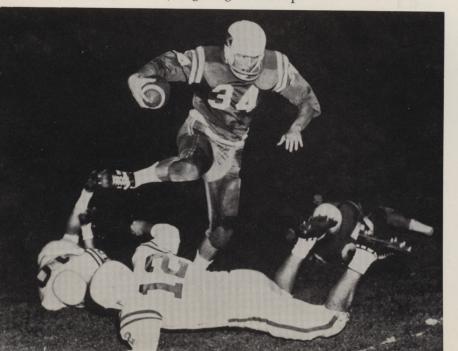

John came up swinging, and both benches emptied quickly.

However John's choice of a place to go out of bounds was far from good. It was at one end of the Lumberjack bench. Neiderauer escaped only slightly damaged. The Arlington police were successful in breaking-up the fight in about five minutes. But it was a dandy while it lasted.

The football game itself wasn't much.

Arlington pretty well mashed the Lumberjacks. After a scoreless first quarter, the decision was never in doubt.

That's "Left-Hook" John Neiderauer (34) hurdling Lumberjack Jerry Richardson. John was just getting warmed up.

Jim Guinn (70) shakes fists with Lumberjack Marvin Harman (30) following the SFA game. Richard Staton (10) is the Rebel offering to hold Harmon's coat.

REBEL STEALS PASS, MAKES TECH CRASH

The Louisana Tech-Arlington State game, won 8-7 by ASC, had everything but a highwire act. For ASC, the best thing, outside of the score itself, was the play that set it up.

Tech was coasting along with five minutes left in the game. Two first downs and the game would be over before ASC could get its hands on the ball again.

Second unit quarterback Johnny Hudson dropped back to pass. And Reb 250 pound tackle Claude Devenport dropped on Hudson, loss of five. Halfback Bob Ashley got one yard at left end, and the stage was set on a third down and 14 yards needed situation.

Quarterback Hudson slid right and pitched to left halfback Mickey Strother. The 175 pound back swung right with the option to run or pass.

The Rebel defense closed in, and he passed. And there was Ronnie Sutherland waiting, just as he had been in the right spot a week before. He jumped slightly and intercepted Strother's throw. Quickly a Tech wise guy grabbed him. The play appeared dead. Everyone stopped. Certainly Jesse McGuire figured the play was over. He stood between Sutherland and the left sideline. Everything and everyone stopped--except Sutherland. He pitched the ball to McGuire.

McGuire got in gear and set off for the end zone 47 yards away. At the Tech seven he was pushed out of bounds.

Three plays later, McGuire passed six yards to John Neiderauer for the score. But Tech still had a 6-7 edge. Anz then hit Doug Hart for the winning two points.

Allen Anz (13) receives an unwanted neck massage from a Louisiana Tech tackle.

Jesse McGuire (26) plays football. It is a game played with a football. Jesse forgot something--a football, Arlington State won, 8-7.

Jesse McGuire (26) encounters a down-but-not-out Indian. The Indians won 23-22.

SHADES OF CUSTER: INDIANS RAID REBS

Right in the eye, huh, John? John Neiderauer (34) got hit in the eye. Didn't he, Richard Krystinik?

From the way McMurry's Indians were rifed when ASC came to visit their Abilene reservation, maybe some gunrunner had been cutting their supplies. It seemed as if every time they got hold of the ball there was a mad dash for the end zone. Score: Indians 23 and Confederates 22.

In the fourth quarter, Redskin Lee King went 95 yards after intercepting Amos North's pass. ASC reclaimed the lead 22-15. But Don Davis took the following kickoff and went 93 yards.

Every Rebel on the field hit him at least once. But he just kept peddling. The McMurry's were still one point down until King directed a pass to halfback Billy West following the touchdown.

At intermission, ASC held a 14-8 lead. The third period was scoreless. Then King did his act with North's pass. And Doug James kicked to give them a 15-14 lead. Little Nell was tied to the track; old 97 was roaring into sight. The stage was set for another Arlington come-frombehind victory. But they forgot to give McMurry a script. The Indians just wouldn't play their part. (What's the old saw about "the only good Indian is a. . . .?"

Arlington knew its lines after a similar part in two previous productions. Key got the touchdown and a pass from Allen Anz to McGuire added two more points to put them in the lead 22-15.

ALAMO STARS CHUCK IN KEY ROLE, 19-14

The score was 19-14 as Arlington discovered another second half victory against Trinity University in San Antonio's Alamo Stadium.

It was homecoming again, just as it had been at Abilene when the Rebs lost to McMurry. Trinity presented its homecoming queen naturally enough, but in a lengthy pageant.

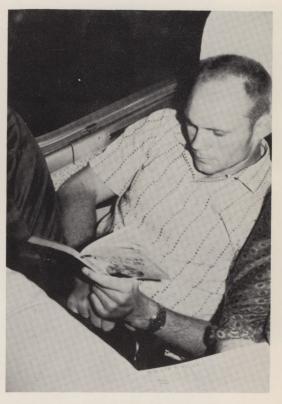

Trinity had its 14 points before half time. But after the Tigers went for the record length in half time ceremonies, Rebel fullback Charlie Key began to act like an enraged rhino.

Key scored all three touchdowns and kicked the one extra point--

19 points. Score: Trinity 14 and Key 19.

Key went three, one, and ten yards for his touchdowns. Of course, Charlie had help. Allen Anz quarterbacked well. Glenn Throckmorton knocked people's heads in well. Gene Burks did well too.

Freshman Steve Jackson filled in for Bruce Couch (he of the twisted knee) and turned in some fine defense.

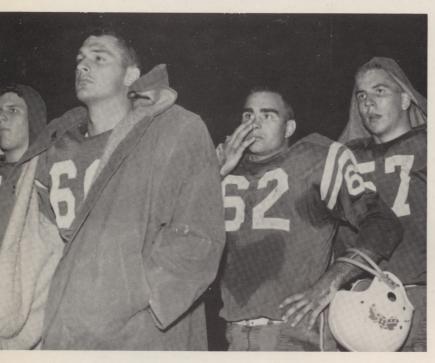

Richard Krystinik checks his lessons on the trip back from San Antonio.

John Neiderauer (34) charges through the center of the Trinity line as ASC won 19-14.

CHRISTIANS ARISE AT CONFEDERATE COLISEUM

Ray Eatherly (66), David Skinner (62) and Robert Conn (57) watch anxiously as ACC's Connor kicks the winning 34-yard field goal.

Jesse McGuire (26) runs and Wildcat Gary Welch (40) tackles as ACC won, 17-15.

There must be something about people from Abilene. They just can't seem to get it right. ASC was supposed to get behind in the first half and then pull the game out after intermission.

McNeese, Louisiana Tech and Trinity had played their parts nicely.

First McMurry fooled around and won 23-23. And now it was Abilene Christian 17-15-on a 34-yard field goal with only 11 seconds left in the game.

Elgin Conner of ACC swung his foot easily into the ball. It pushed toward the goalpost, hung in fans' throats and then dropped just over the crossbar while Doug Hart leaped in an effort to deflect it. He just missed. So did Arlington State.

With three passers doing the damage, ACC jumped to a 14-0 lead. Arlington recovered the lead on a two-yard touchdown by Freddie Arnold, a two-point conversion run by Jessie McGuire, an eight yard six-pointer by Doug Hart and a pressure kick by Charlie Key.

The score was 15-14. Elgin Conner lined up for his field goal attempt. He couldn't do it. They wouldn't even try. It was going to be a fake kick and pass. Anyone could see that.

But Conner kicked. . .and two days later ASC Back Coach Judd Ramsey was sitting in his office making sounds in some unknown tongue.

Steve Jackson (82) yells encouragement as Coach Bobby Lane meditates.

REBELS HAVE A HART IN TAMING BULLDOGS

Allen Anz (13) grimaces as Bulldog secures the tackle. But ASC beat Northeast Louisiana 35-6.

Judd Ramsey finally got his wish. It must have been pure joy for him and Chena Gilstrap and the other coaches--not to mention the Rebel footballers.

They beat the dickens out of Northeastern Louisana State 35-6 at Monroe, La.

Arlington gained 520 yards with 225 by air and 265 by land. Halfback Doug Hart got Arlington started by traveling 67 yards on a slice through right tackle. It was the longest ASC gain from scrimmage during the season.

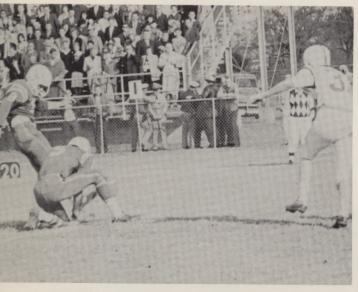

Northeast tied the score at 6-6 when Ken Newton ran 21 yards. Then the Rebs went into orbit. Before they came back to earth the scoreboard had clicked off four more touchdowns.

Charlie Key booted extra points after three of the scores and Ronnie Sutherland ran for two points following North's touchdown.

Glenn Throckmorton (71) anxiously watches a play. So do Roger Jones (84), Harris Miers (mask) and Harry Leinbach.

HOMECOMING BRINGS WINNING END TO '61

Charlie Key (8) kicked and Amos North (5) held-frequently.

Richard Krystinik (55) and David Busse (69) wait out a play before returning to the game.

A shot of the ASC bench caught an extra bench warmer, Coach Chena Gilstrap's son Randy.

It was a crazy kind of game.

The wind was forever gently blowing your hat to Kingdom-come. And Arlington State was doing the same to Southwestern Oklahoma, 27-0.

With a few minutes left in the affair and ASC a mile ahead, Coach Chena Gilstrap put an all-senior line-up on the field. Amos North, the Reb's granddaddy quarterback, played guard.

Heinie Pate, a scat back of a tackle, played halfback and sort of spread-out into fullback too.

Richard Staton threw a touchdown pass to Roger Jones and Coach Judd Ramsey wondered about how they were biting out on the lake.

It was homecoming for ASC.

The old grads were there. Included among them were six members of the '21 Grubbs Hornets who tied Tarleton for the state junior college championship.

And there were floats and Miss Dixie Belle, Judy Webb.

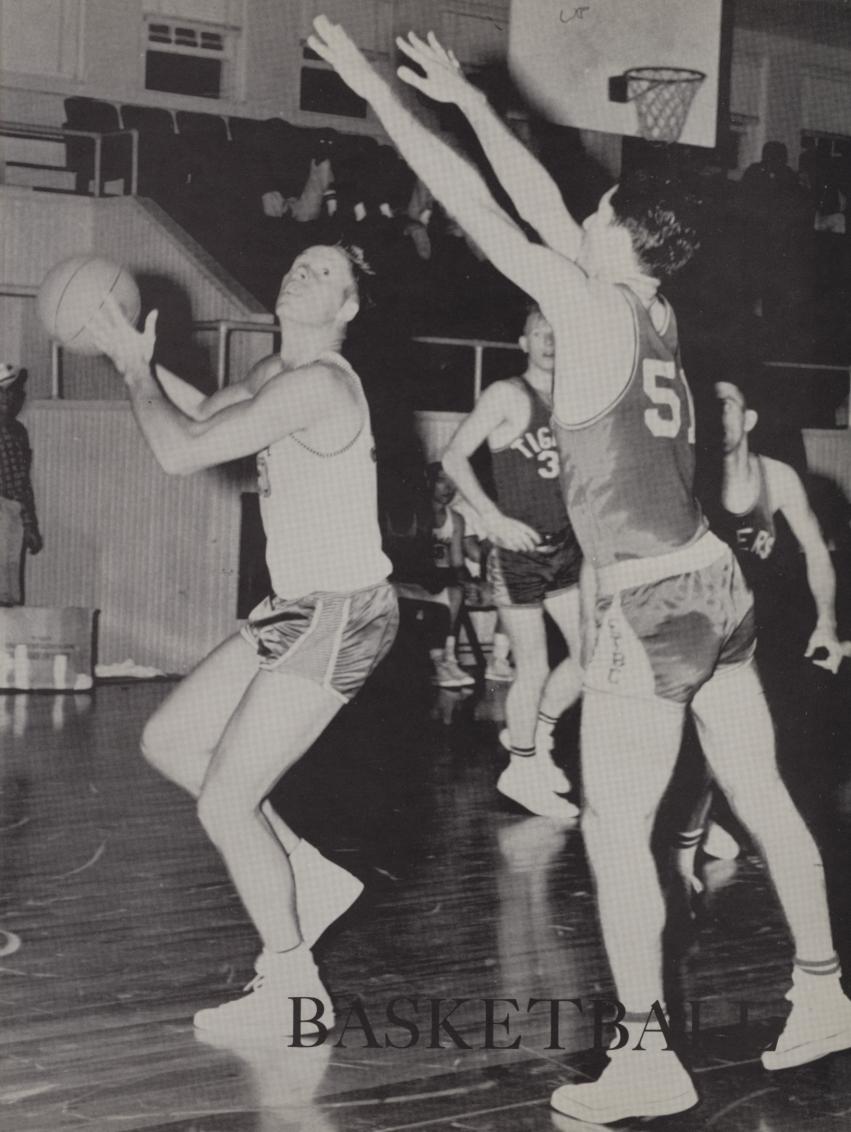

Senior halfback Freddie Arnold, his knee strong all the way, finished the season as his team's top rusher. He got 435 yards on 87 carries.

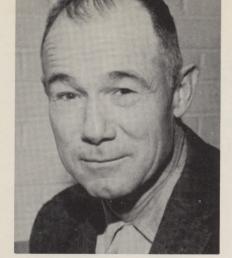

In leading the attack against Southwestern with 61 yards, Freddie upped his career rushing total to 1,002 yards.

Freddie and 14 other Rebel lettermen were playing their last game for ASC. The last of the Junior Rose Bowlers were among them. . .

Freddie Arnold is on the way to some of the 435 rushing yards he gained during the season to pace the Reb ball carriers.

Coach Tom Tinker

BASKETBALL TEAM ENDS 6 - WIN SEASON

"B" Team coach Jim Garrett

Arlington State went into a third season of senior College basketball with high hopes for added rebound strength. They had Jerry Janek, a 6-6 center, who was looking forward to his first season as a Rebel after two big years in Junior College.

But Janek injured his knee before the first game, and he didn't play a second. The Rebels won but six of 24 games. Noel Roberts was the leader, pointwise, with his jump shots hitting at better than 14 points per game. Doug Funk, ASC's big postman, was the rebounding leader. Doug was second to Roberts in the scoring race. But he hit more than 50 per cent of his field goal attempts.

Coach Tom Tinker had only good things to say for his team. They played it to win, he said.

Rebel "B's" were unbeaten until they lost their last two games, both to North Texas freshmen.

A sympathetic fan is a coach's best friend.

Quarter-time change in strategy nets points for point hungry team.

DALLAS GAME PROVES KIND TO REBELS

Though the season wasn't a winning one, the Rebels did have their moments. And some of their better ones came during the January Cotton Bowl Tournament in Dallas.

For the second year, ASC went to the tourney finals. The Rebels suffered upsets both years.

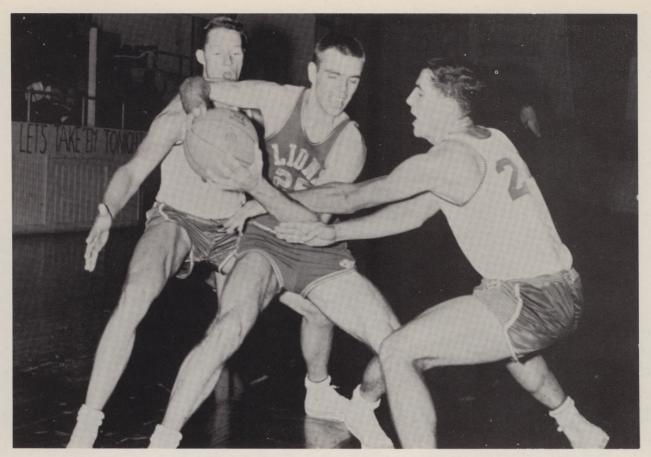

In the '62 tourney, the Confederates began with a 66-60 victory over the Austin College Kangaroos. Noel Roberts was the scoring leader, as he was in most games. He scored 22 points.

While the Rebs were beating the Kangaroos, Oklahoma Baptist College was arranging the surprise of the tournament. The Sooners outscored pre-tourney favorite, McMurry.

The two teams met in the semi-finals. The Oklahoma team had twice beaten Arlington earlier in the season, 64-46 in Shawnee, Oklahoma, and 55-54 in Arlington.

Phil Gist (30) tries for steal against East Central Foul who? Rebels Jimmie Martin (24) and Doug Funk surround a Lion. Lions won, 78-68.

REBELS TAKE COTTON BOWL SEMI - FINALS

It was again Noel Roberts and Doug Funk who were the leaders when ASC won in the Cotton Bowl semi-finals, 43-42 over Oklahoma Baptist.

The game was close all the way. Roberts and Funk scored with only seconds remaining on the clock to give ASC the win. The Baptists had a 26-24 lead at the half. It was a victory for the Rebel's tight defense.

Arlington's magic left before the finals. The Rebs lost, 76-64, to Midwestern. Confederate postman Doug Funk was named to the All-Tournament team. It was something of a comeback for Doug. He was injured during the 1960 tournament and was forced to miss Arlington's final round game with Trinity.

An East Central Stater recovers his dribble as Noel Roberts (22) and Doug Funk (50) watch.

Oh, Mister, what big eyes you have. Willie Baker (52), Doug Funk (50) and Noel Roberts defend against Oklahoma Baptists.

ASC OVERTAKES TWC RAMS 77-74

Arlington had another good night in beating Texas Wesleyan, 77-74, at the Rebel gym. They jumped to an early lead, lost it, and had to overtake the Rams in the last minutes.

Scoring on their first five fieldgoal attempts, the Rebels led 10-0. But TWC passed them with 6:55 left before the intermission, 26-25.

It was a you-take-it-I-got-it game until the final buzzer. The Rebels took a two point lead into the last four minutes. The Rams were forced into mistakes.

Five Confederates scored in double figures. Doug Funk was tops. He scored 16 points, as did Jimmie Martin. Noel Roberts added 14. And Phil Gist accounted for 13.

TWC's Cecil Goff shadows Rebel Phil Gist (30).

A lay-up by ASC's Bill Reeves wasn't enough to prevent a 68-63 loss.

The Baptists were good at blocking hooks like this one by the Rebel's Doug Funk.

REBS PLAY FIVE GAMES AT HOME

In action against Oklahoma Baptist is Willie Baker (52). ASC lost, 55-54.

Something that didn't happen often enough, Rebel Don Riley (32) grabs rebound against Lamar Tech.

Phil Gist drives for two points as Lamar defenders close in.

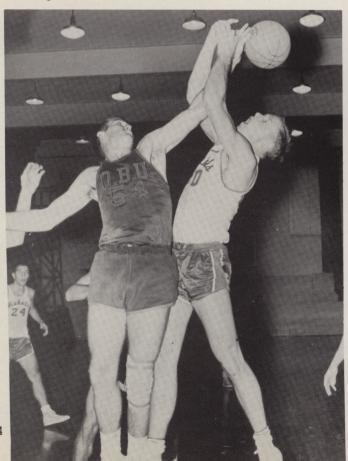

Noel Roberts jumps against Midwestern as Doug Funk watches.

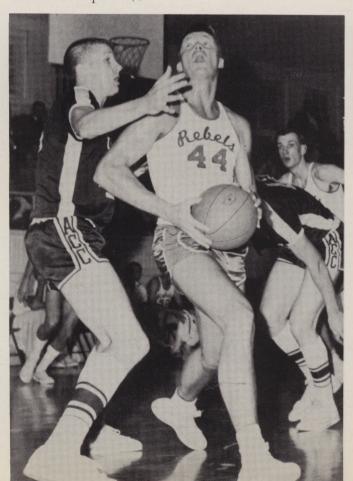

Frank Roberts dives at Christian Pat Agnew (44).

REBELS FALL TO OPPONENTS

Doug Funk (50) and Baptist friend (54) discuss religion. The Baptists converted ASC, 68-63.

Arlington's Doug Funk aims a left hook at Abilene Christian. He was outpointed, 91-71.

COEDS-MASTER VARIED SKILLS

The women's physical education department offers competitive sports ranging from fencing to tennis. Modern dance and marksmanship classes are also included. Coeds are required to take at least four semesters of physical education.

Badminton is an enjoyable competitive game.

As the ball is served, the opposing team gets ready to make a return.

After a good game, four tennis players meet at the net to exchange tips on how to control the ball.

Limbering up before each modern dance class is one of the most important fundamentals of the course.

Basic exercises improve posture, the figure, and help develop grace in dance.

Three girls take one final stretch before beginning their dance routines.

Two fencers find out how to hold the foil correctly.

Fencers learn the rules of etiquette for the game.

Fencing is a game which requires both physical and mental alertness.

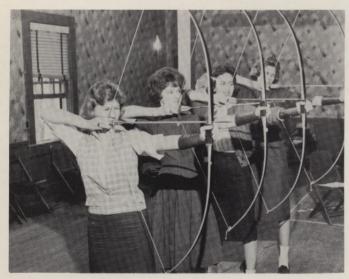

The girls' rifle class learns safety rules for the sport. Here, the girls sight in.

INSTRUCTORS TEACH GIRLS SPORTSMANSHIP

Sportsmanship and safety are stressed in all the physical education classes. Qualified instructors are on hand at all times to supervise the classes. They teach the coeds how to handle equipment properly so that chances of injuries will be reduced.

Arm guards are absolutely necessary in archery class. With bows drawn the archers aim for the bull's-eye.

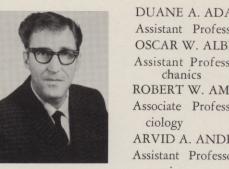

The score keeper tallies the bull's-eye as two team members remove their arrows from the target.
